RACIAL MATTER - ANP

The file is being marked "CHANGED" to reflect the subject's full name as registered at the Nogales High School in La Puente, California.

On 3/10/67 the writer contacted [REDACTED] b7C
[REDACTED] Nogales High School, 401 South Nogales Street, b7D
La Puente, California. [REDACTED] advised that TOMMASI was born on April 15, '51 in Hartford, Connecticut. He is 5'11" to 6'0" tall, weighs about 170 lbs, neat dark hair, dark olive complexion indicating a latin extraction. He stated [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] b7C
[REDACTED] The family resides at 344 Giano Avenue, La Puente, Calif. b7D

[REDACTED] It is noted that [REDACTED] advised that the subject attended El Monte High School on 6/16/66 prior to transferring to Nogales High School.

[REDACTED] advised that a young first year female teacher came b7C to him about two weeks ago stating that young TOMMASI had given her b7D one of the Nazi's "Beat Trip to Africa" for all Negroes. She didn't know what to do with it except to give it to [REDACTED] said he called the boy in and had a talk with him. The boy promised not to pass out any ANP literature on the school but wanted to know why the school permitted the magazine "EBONY" to be placed in the school library when Nazi books could not be so placed. [REDACTED] told him that no racial hatred literature would be permitted in the library.

[REDACTED] was advised by the writer of the subject's bragadoccia threats to beat up on Negroes going to his school and that if any trouble broke it could probably be traced to TOMMASI.

It is recommended that this case be closed.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY

WESTERN DIVISION

Fellow White Man:

In the past few months the West Coast National Socialist White People's Party has been in a state of inactivity, due to the closing of the El Monte headquarters. However, due to the loyalty and dedication of active NSWPP members, there has been a re-organization of the West Coast National Socialist White People's Party.

Therefore, since you are on our mailing list, we would appreciate a letter from you stating whether or not you wish us to keep you on the West Coast NSWPP mailing list.

If we do not receive word from you before January 1, 1969, we will assume that you no longer wish to participate in the activities of the West Coast National Socialist White People's Party. Remember, this notice concerns ONLY the West Coast NSWPP, and not National Headquarters in Arlington, Virginia.

All those who have in the past been active, especially officers and Stormtroopers, are here-by urged to become active in future activities.

We are presently planning many activities such as defensive and offensive moves for the protection of our White Race. Also literature distributions and regular Party meetings are being conducted.

Therefore, we sincerely hope that you are still interested in the activities of the West Coast National Socialist White People's Party, and will send your letter of support as soon as possible.

Thank you for your past interest and support which we hope will continue.

Sincerely,

Joe Tommasi, Storm Leader

NIGGER ATTEMPTS TO TAKE LIFE OF NAZIS

While picketing Channel Nines' Tempo 1 T.V. program, which was at the time promoting race-mixing, two members of the N.S.W.P.P. barely missed death when a cowardly nigger tried to run the Nazis over.

The incident came about when the super left Jew, Stan Bormann challenged all the decent and respectable White people to show themselves, when he opened his week long race-mixing program which also included "specimens" of nigger-lovers with their aborigine girlfriends and boyfriends. HOW DARLING THE UBANGIES ARE THIS SEASON.....

As the Nazis protested this show of degeneracy, a vile nigger drove his Diesel truck onto the curb and barely missed the Nazis by a mere two inches. Seeing that he failed, the buck hurriedly backed off and sped away.

Getting the word, the Jew Bormann leaped for joy, showing his Jewish nature. He broadcasted the incident on T.V. and gave the usual smear job. But these incidents will never stop the spirit of White preservation, which is felt in all National Socialists, for with this spirit our victory is certain.

NOTICE ;

Any persons interested in getting in touch with the West Coast N.S.W.P.P., should write to; P.O.BOX 2206, EL MONTE, CALIF., 91732.

Any persons interested in contacting National Headquarters should write to; P.O. BOX 5505, ARLINGTON, VIRGINIA, 22220.

Meetings of the West Coast N.S.W.P.P. are now being held at select times and places. Any persons interested in attending, should contact the West Coast N.S.W.P.P. through the above P.O.BOX.

A place is urgently needed to set up a White Power Message in which thousands of people would hear a taped recording concerning National Socialism, over the telephone. Any person interested in helping should contact the West Coast N.S.W.P.P.

NATIONAL SOCIALISTS DISRUPT TREASON MARCH

On Sat., Oct. 26, the Jew-Communist traitor, Irving Sarnoff led a treason march down Wilshire Blvd. in protest over U.S. anti-Communist attitudes in South-East Asia.

A squad of four members of the National Socialist White Peoples Party, led by Group Leader Joe Tommasi, was on the scene to protest the actions of these traitors.

As the march came down Wilshire, heading for MacArthur Park, the Nazis stepped out and marched in front of the "Peace Parade", carrying a huge WHITE POWER banner, with a large swastika in the corner. Two Troopers held picket signs on each side of the banner.

As they marched in front of the parade, a vile Jew leaped at the banner and tore it down. Trooper Don Kweiser then smashed the Jew-Commie-creep to the ground with the pole used to carry the banner.

A huge fight erupted and the National Socialists had to retreat to the other side of Wilshire.

Determined not to surrender, the Nazis ran to the front of the march again. This time the commies exploded. The whole three thousand charged the Stormtroopers. With the spirit of Adolf Hitler in their blood, the Stormtroopers stood their ground and awaited the hordes of Reds.

As the first creep contacted the troopers, he went sprawling with a well aimed punch to the temple by Trooper Heitschie. The next Red recieved a fine kick to the groin by Trooper Dan Dexter, a first time picketer. Just then the whole of the march collided with the National Socialists. Fists and clubs were flying everywhere.

As the Nazis again had to retreat, Trooper Heitschie was clubbed over the back and Trooper Dan Dexter was clubbed on the forehead and recieved a slight concussion.

Just then a plain-clothes police officer grabbed one of the creeps, and the whole mob went after the cop.

The Stormtroopers then escaped to their car and drove away.

Violence flared when the parade reached the Wallace for President headquarters, 3010 Wilshire Blvd. Four young men, dressed as Nazis, attempted to step in front of the parade and march before it.

Nazi Placards Ripped
The antiwar marchers ripped the signs of the Nazi group and forced its members to the sidewalk, but the Nazis tried again a half block away. This time the members of the parade pressed the Nazis into a corner of Lafayette Park and then west on Wilshire.

When a police intelligence officer grabbed one of the marchers and told him to stop offering to fight the Nazis, members of the crowd pressed toward the policeman.

L.A. Peace March Collides With Nazi Youths; 5 Arrested

BY JOHN KENDALL

Times Staff Writer

As PAC was marching to the park a gang of Nazis tried to march in front of them. There were plenty of cops standing around but they did not interfere with the Nazis, so the monitors were forced to remove the Nazis and their symbols from the path. Pushed aside and with their swastika banner torn down, the Nazis ran forward to head off the march at Wilshire and Virgil. When the Nazis tried to push their hate symbols in front of the demonstrators this time, some of the marchers attacked them. Police officers ran over to defend the Nazis. One cop seized a Nazi's adversary by the throat and throttled him on the ground. The Nazi escaped. Two demonstrators were arrested.

The incident was covered by all the T.V. stations and was on all the Radio stations. Coverage was also given on the front page of the L.A. Times.

Again the Commie traitors have seen that there are still patriotic, white Americans left on this earth who will not allow the traitors to from the streets of this great country unchallenged.

BROWN BERETS ATTACK LONE NAZI

Ten members of the militant Mexican organization, the Brown Berets, attacked a member of the N.S.W.P.P.

On Oct. 11, 1968, while Group Leader Joe Tommasi was ordering some food at a local hamburger stand, ten members of the anti-White Mexican gangster organization, the Brown Berets, attacked him from behind.

It seems as though some saw his picture in the latest issue of the Stormtrooper magazine and felt that was as good a time as any to give a difference of opinion.

It was quite evident that ten militant string-beans were not equal to one lone Nazi, for as soon as they landed a few punches, they ran like the whole German Army was after them.

It won't be very long before the whole White Race realizes and awakens to the threat the non-white elements pose to the White Race.

NOTICE :

All N.S.W.P.P. Party members are urged to have nothing, what-so-ever, to do with anyone affiliated with a James K. Warner, David Lea, Bart West, Mike Brown, George Carpenter, Allen Vincent, Bill Morrison, Ehon Maquire, a so-called Lt. Mike Murray, Mike Falkenberg, Don Sisco, Frank Drager, a so-called "Commander Bishop", and especially Karl R. Allen who betrayed Commander Rockwell and led a mutiny which almost destroyed the Party. Do not respond to any publications which they have been known to solicit. All are traitors to the ideals of National Socialism and the National Socialist White Peoples Party and its leader Matt Koehl.

Don't be fooled by any so-called "American Nazi Party" operating out of the Iwoa or Phoenix, Ariz. area. They were at one time in with the group of mutineers led by K.R. Allen, (long time enemy of Commander Rockwell), and J.K. Warner, but have since "split" from them and are now led by a nothing who goes by the title of "Commander Bishop". This Bishop character has never had anything to do with Commander Rockwell and the N.S.W.P.P. since its start in 1967. He just recently popped up like a weed in a flower patch, (and we all know what happens to little weeds sooner or latter, don't we????????), so don't be tricked by any literature or pleas for donations by these worthless frauds.

N. S. ARMS and AMMO

Due to recent anti-white gun laws which have been passed concerning the mail-order sale of guns, the N.S.W.P.P. N.S. ARMS Program will soon be put out of business. All concerned White People, who need guns, should buy from N.S. ARMS before Jan. 1, 1969, when the bill becomes law.

Write to National Headquarters for all the information.

[redacted] The NS is to lose the building back to the owner who apparently is a Jew and the owner is not too happy with having a bunch of Nazis in his building. The duty officer wears a side arm and has a large container of chemical mace on his belt at all times. Also at night there is a shotgun about ten feet from the front door. During the watch after midnight the duty officer goes to the rear of the building, then to every room, upstairs included.

A description of National Headquarters main floor: The front door is always locked. You ring a bell, the duty officer comes in and looks through a peep hole. The first room as you enter is a lobby where they sell material probably 8 feet by 15 feet wide. The second room is the mailing room, straight ahead is the mailing room and off to one side and parallel to the lobby is the room they make up the newspaper. The mail room is about 25 feet long, has a bathroom off to the right behind the lobby. Paper is stacked on paper in shelves all over the place. Immediately beyond the mail room and to the left, facing the rear of the building, is the supply room. There are several supply rooms as a matter of fact. One is the supply room containing their extensive supply of books. The other supply room, the open supply room, contains bulletins. The third room is parallel to the mail room. It goes from the newspaper office up front parallel to the mail room and back to one of the supply rooms. It has all the membership records and mailing lists. They're on addressograph plates. The addressograph plate closet is approximately four feet wide by three feet high and loaded with drawers.

[redacted] upstairs [redacted]

The Congress itself started on Saturday, September 4th at about 10:30. Commander KOEHL came in, everybody gave him the salute. He welcomed the National Socialists. About 11:00 o'clock or 11:30 Captain KIRSTEIN talked on LINCOLN ROCKWELL's contribution to National Socialism. The session adjourned at about 12:30. At 2:00 o'clock or 2:30 they picked up again on local reports. These are the reports by the different headquarters around the country.

The afternoon session consisted of local reports and a speech by Commander KOEHL called the "Pan Arian Role on National Socialism," which is a lot of excerpts from other things written by other people. This session ended at 4:00 o'clock and everybody was dismissed and told to come back at 7:00 o'clock. At about 6:30 or a quarter to 7:00 they showed slides of various activities held around the country with the different groups. And then there was a speech by WILLIAM KIRSTEIN, "Advancing to Revolutionary Action." At about 8:00 o'clock or 8:30 there was a film "Triumph of the Will" which was rather an excellent film about Adolf Hitler and his movement through his party back in Germany '30...from '32 on to about '42 or '43. This session ended at about 10:30. The next morning, Sunday, September 5, 1971, started with a special mission of the party by JOE TOMMASI. His speech went from 10:00 to about a quarter to 11:00. After that was a speech by Captain KIRSTEIN, "A Struggle Against Deviationism," which was the usual harangue speech and excerpts from some of the bulletins. Sunday afternoon, they had a march about 2:00 o'clock into Washington, D.C. at L'enfant Square. They had a speech and a rally. At about a quarter to 4:00 they piled into a bus and came back to the Headquarters. And at 8:00 o'clock in the evening they had ceremonies. Ceremonies enlogizing ROCKWELL and ADOLF HITLER and appointing the committee to run the NS for the next year.

After the ceremonies, the Congress was concluded. A lot of people left then but a lot of people went back to NS Headquarters and at Headquarters they asked for volunteers to ride on the hate bus. The hate bus eventually pulled out of Arlington about midnight headed for the South. This followed by a Volkswagen, a red Volkswagen from Los Angeles.

Monday morning, they asked to let anybody that was left over Monday morning to come up to Headquarters, they were going to have a press release and they wanted as many people as possible to go down to the National Press Building in Washington, D.C. No reporters were waiting for them at the Press Building to pick up the news release.

In all, Captain KIRSTEIN was heard to say that 180 registered for the Congress and Congress was considered a resounding success.

Court Ban Sets Stage for Hate Message Test

Nazi Party Telephone Yanked Out After Tape Calls for Race War

BY LEE DYE
Times Staff Writer

California may be on the verge of setting a national precedent in determining just how far courts can go in controlling recorded telephone hate messages.

It all stems from action taken recently by the state attorney general's office which brought at least a temporary halt here in a propaganda program sponsored by the National Socialist White People's Party, alias the American Nazi Party.

The attorney general obtained a court order to have an El Monte phone removed on March 13. Since about Feb. 14 the phone had offered recorded messages calling for race war, if necessary, to prevent a mixing of the races.

Extremity Increases

About two weeks ago the recordings grew more extreme, ending with this statement by Dr. William Pierce, the ideological officer of the NSWPP:

"Let's clearly understand that there is only one effective way to deal with the rampaging blacks on our campuses and in our cities, and that is to kill them."

Law enforcement officials, who had said the messages were protected by the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, finally made their move.

Dep. Atty. Gen. Lawrence R. Tapper and Bernard S. Kamine obtained a court order from Municipal Judge Ronnie Lee Martin, who ruled that the message was a violation of California law in that it was designed to "instigate or encourage the perpetration of an unlawful act."

The phone, registered to Joe Tommasi at 10914 Garvey Ave., El Monte, was disconnected March 13. Tommasi is a senior at El Monte Union High School and the El Monte leader of the NSWPP.

Under California Public Utilities Commission Rule 31, Tommasi has until Friday to appeal the decision.

Pierce, who was reached at his headquarters in Arlington, Va., told The Times the NSWPP will appeal the decision.

Could Set Precedent

If the case goes to court it could set a precedent in limits to which law enforcement officials may go to control hate messages.

Prior to the action by the attorney general's office, officials in both that office and the Los Angeles District Attorney's office, as well as Pacific Telephone Co., had said they were powerless to act.

"God knows I wanted to stop it," said Charles Bitner, chief investigator for Pacific Telephone, "but there was nothing we could do."

Bitner said the tariffs under which the phone company operates in California require the company to locate recorded message devices to anyone who applies, and the company has no jurisdiction over the contents of the messages.

The company leases the equipment for a relatively low cost and there are literally thousands of the records in use for legitimate purposes, such as theater programs and doctor's messages.

"We tried awhile back to require the people broadcasting the message to give their name in the recording," noted George Rancicelli, assistant vice president in charge of public affairs for Pacific Telephone. "But a California Supreme Court decision in 1968 threw that out.

"The court ruled that such a requirement was an abridgement of the individual's right to free speech, as guaranteed by the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution," he said.

The First Amendment formed the basis for legal barriers to ending the messages. There is one California law which prohibits acts aimed at promoting violence, but officials did not believe they could win a conviction under that law.

Harry Wood, chief of the appellate division of the Los Angeles District Attorney's office said that in addition to proving the person incited violence, the state also would have to prove that the circumstances under which the act occurred were such as to make the act effective.

Miles J. Rubin, a senior assistant to state Atty. Gen. Thomas Lynch and supervisor of Los Angeles activities by the attorney general's staff, agreed essentially with Wood.

"Unless you have a clear and present danger of action, you probably couldn't prosecute," he said. "It would be awfully, awfully hard to make it stick."

Kept Tab

Officials kept watch on the messages. A few days after the recording suggesting that the only effective way to deal with the racial crisis is to kill the blacks, the attorney general's office made its move.

Thus on the basis of one message the NSWWP was put out of the telephone propaganda business in Los Angeles, although other agencies still offer similar messages.

"We doubt very much that the attorney general can enforce this," Pierce told The Times during a telephone interview.

"We have been pretty careful about the wording," he said. "We didn't tell people to go kill anybody. We merely said that's the only effective way to deal with the problem."

Pierce said the "service" has been offered in three metropolitan areas — Los Angeles, Washington, D.C., and Racine, Wisc. He said those locations were selected because local party leaders were ready to begin the operation.

Prior to removal of the phone here, Pierce said the party planned to expand the service within six months to every major metropolitan area in the country.

He said his organization decided to broadcast the messages when it became "apparent that we were already in the early stages of what will develop into race war."

"We would prefer that to a mixture of the races," he told The Times.

One of the messages used here suggested that "race war is a small price to pay" to insure a white America.

Rest Automatic

To hear the messages, one needed only to dial the number. The rest was automatic.

Knowledge of the number was spread largely by word-of-mouth, although the El Monte number was printed in at least one college newspaper.

The UCLA Daily Bruin ran the number in a classified ad until Editor Mike Levett learned of the nature of the message. It was then removed.

"Recorded telephone hate messages are not new and most of them are protected by constitutional guarantees of free speech. In this case, however, constitutional limits have clearly been exceeded by the advocacy of mass murder."

[redacted] advised on January 13, 1969 that the telephone company had installed a relay unit in the building at 10914 Garvey Boulevard, El Monte, California, which had been leased by the NSWPP; that the relay unit would be used to operate a recording unit provided by the NSWPP, Arlington, Virginia, to transmit a message by telephone when a certain number was dialed. The message was called the White Power Message. It was indicated that one unit was already installed in NSWPP headquarters in Arlington. According to this source, the message could be changed daily, weekly, or at random. The relay unit could handle up to twenty calls at one time, so twenty callers could dial and listen to the message at the same time. The messages to be used on the recording unit were to be sent from headquarters in Arlington, Virginia. The headquarters was to designate the particular messages to be transmitted in a certain area. The headquarters would prepare the recordings to suit their purposes for a specific area. The telephone number to be used in listening to the recording was to be made available to the public through newspapers and literature.

The "NS Bulletin", official organ of the NSWPP, dated January 15, 1969 advised that no local fund raising would be permitted. All dues and contributions would continue to be sent directly to National Headquarters. Solicitation of pledges for support of White Power Message units would be permitted only when a Party representative holds a letter of authorization from the National Leader. Other fund raising was strictly forbidden.

[redacted] advised on January 21, 1969 that Joseph Tommasi of the NSWPP in El Monte, stated that Dr. William Pierce had telephoned and advised Tommasi not to rent a telephone answering machine from the telephone company because the telephone company would yank it out as soon as the Jews put pressure on them. Dr. Pierce was to have a telephone answering machine company contact Tommasi.

[redacted] advised on January 29, 1969 that at a NSWPP meeting held on January 25, 1969 at 10914 Garvey Boulevard, El Monte, Tommasi advised that their telephone answering machine which was to arrive cost $300, and that the National Headquarters paid half the cost. He said that the Los Angeles Unit, NSWPP, owed only $150 on the machine.

[redacted] advised on February 5, 1969 that at a NSWPP meeting on February 1, 1969, held at 10914 Garvey Boulevard, El Monte, California, Tommasi stated that Party members had distributed Party literature which gave the phone number to call for the White Power Message. He stated that the telephone had been ringing continuously all day. He said more literature would be distributed, and if the response continued, he would have to get more telephone lines to handle all the calls. He said this would cost $15 a month more for each additional line. Tommasi said he had written to newspapers in the Los Angeles area complaining about the White Power Message, but had written them to sound as though he were Jewish. He said that if the papers printed the letters, it would mean more publicity for the Party. Tommasi further said that a Los Angeles man had written he was willing to donate $1,000 to the Party, but Tommasi had written back and advised that the $1,000 should be sent to National Headquarters and that if the man desired, he could send $50 to him (Tommasi). At this meeting, Tommasi said the telephone bill for the past month was $52 and the rent was due on February 3, 1969; that he was going to take a collection because he did not have enough money to cover both bills. The collection yielded $47.

[redacted] advised on February 3, 1969 that at an NSWPP meeting held at 10914 Garvey Boulevard, El Monte, on February 1, 1969, Tommasi said that Headquarters in Arlington, Virginia, was making some special stickers having the telephone number of the White Power Message in El Monte and would send them out. Tommasi said that some man had called and told him he was donating $1,000 to the Party. Tommasi said he told the caller to send the check to Arlington, Virginia because they could not take any donations out here. Tommasi did not name the person calling. During the meeting, there were around fifty to seventyfive calls for the White Power Message. b2

[redacted] advised on February 11, 1969 that Tommasi stated on February 8, 1969 that the telephone number for the White Power Message was changed by the telephone company as the old number was so busy it affected telephone service of other telephone numbers near it. He said he had reserved a block of numers so more answering machines could be installed. He said he needed $75 so he could install another answering machine. Two persons present were willing to donate a total of $60 toward the answering machine. b2

"Hello, I'm Dr. WILLIAM PIERCE with the National Socialist White Peoples Party. On college campuses all over America today education is giving way to anarchy and chaos as gangs of black thugs sparked by a few jews reek total havoc even where there is only a tiny minority of the student body. The reason they're able to do this is because they're meeting no resistance from either white students, or faculty, or administration. Administrators, after a few half-hearted and unsuccessful efforts to be firm, have retreated to the point where total appeasement is now their only tactics. White students and faculty have at best stood around with their hands in their pockets while black gangs have torn up their schools and stomped anyone who got in their way. The worst, and this is more the case, the liberal elements among the whites are joining the blacks and jews in their attacks against other whites. Now, I suppose America could get along for a while without her colleges if she had to, but what's happening now in America's colleges is characteristic of what's happening or will happen in every phase of American life. America is sick unto death and the name of our "sickness is democratic liberalism. We've been brain-washed by our enemies for years now into believing that it's wrong for white men to stick together. Smooth talking liars have told us that it's wicked for us to feel pride in our rights and to put the interest of our own people first, but that we must not fight our enemies but that we must try to understand them and reason with them, that racial suicide is better than racial self-defense. Wake up America. Let's get this liberal poison out of our systems before it's too late. ✓ Let's clearly understand that there is only one effective way to take care of the rampaging blacks on our campuses and in our cities and that is to kill them. For more information and a free white power button for you to wear, write to the National Socialist White Peoples Party today. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Box 5505 Arlington, Virginia. This has been another in a continuing series of white power messages."

"I am Dr. WILLIAM PIERCE with the National Socialist White Peoples Party. The program of the American Government during the next four years will be determined by a pair of immigrant Jews. They are Nixon's two top policy makers, a Jew from Germany, KISSINGER (phonetic), is in charge of our foreign policy and a Soviet Jew, believe it or not, BURNS (phonetic) by name, is in charge of our domestic policy. You should keep these two behind-the-scenes wire pullers in mind during the next few years as one calamity after another befalls America. What America needs is not another Jewish program but instead a white man's program. A program by and for the white people of this country. We can be sure that Mr. KISSINGER's foreign policy will, for example, maintain American's official hostility toward the white government of South Africa and Rhodesia. At the same time he will certainly attempt to maintain the U. S. alignment with the Jews in the Middle East. Instead of Mr. KISSINGER's policy, we need a foreign policy aimed at developing the white world solidarity, a policy based on the long term interest of their home race not other races. We need a policy that will establish solid bonds between us and the other white nations of the world for the advancement of our common racial interests.

"On the domestic front, instead of Mr. BURNS' program, we need a program aimed first at making America white. Nothing less will do. Only in an all white America can we carry out a genuine program for the betterment of our people. The National Socialist White Peoples Party has the sort of program America needs and in future white power messages, I'll tell you about that program point by point. Meanwhile, if you would like a copy of our program, and a free White Power button to wear, just send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Box 5505, that's Box 5505, Arlington, Virginia. [] advised on February 18, 1969 that Tommasi stated on February 15, 1969 that he had contacted the telephone company and had reserved a "rotary testing unit" with five numbers in sequence. He said this would involve getting five more "message units" from National Headquarters in Arlington. Tommasi said the telephone company recommended that he reserve the "testing unit" because the telephone line the Party then had for the White Power Message was receiving such a large number of calls that it was burning out the line at the switchboard. Tommasi said that National Headquarters was printing 4,000 new cards with the new number of the White Power Message. The cards which National Headquarters had previously printed were no longer any good since the number had been changed. The new number was 443-4244. b2 [] advised on February 26, 1969 that Tommasi stated on February 21, 1969 at an NSWPP meeting that more money was needed to acquire another answering machine and he asked Party members to supply funds. Some of those present contributed and then Tommasi said he had enough money for another answering machine and for a telephone hook-up. b2

The "UCLA Daily Bruin", a campus newspaper at the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) dated February 28, 1969 contained an article reflecting that a classified advertisement for a "White Power" telephone message had been "pulled" from the paper due to its racist content, after it had appeared in some issues. The advertisement listed a telephone number to call to receive a sixty second taped message from the NSWPP. The advertisement was reportedly placed by Tommasi of El Monte, according to the article. When the number was called, the speaker identified himself as William Pierce and as being third in command with the American Nazi Party (see appendix under NSWPP).

The article advised that in the message, Pierce warns that "on college campuses all over America today, education is giving way to anarchy and chaos as gangs of black thugs, sparked by a few Jews, wreak total havoc even where they are only a tiny minority of the student body." He concluded, "Let's clearly understand that there is only one effective way to deal with the rampaging blacks on our campuses and in our cities - and that is to kill them".

According to this article, Tommasi said he believed the decision to pull the advertisement was a violation of his civil rights. He admitted to being a member of the "Nazi Party" and that he hated Jews because "they're Communists".

[redacted] advised on March 7, 1969 that he had tried to contact the NSWPP message number 444-0438, but the Operator would advise the number had been changed to 443-4244; that when the latter number was called, there was a busy signal.

On March 10, 1969, [redacted] Los Angeles, telephonically advised that the message obtained by dialing number 443-4244 was a recording made by Dr. William Pierce in behalf of the NSWPP advocating the killing of Negroes and Jews to curb present campus unrest in the United States and giving Post Office Box 5505, Arlington, Virginia as a source of further information.

Court Ban Sets Stage for Hate Message Test

Nazi Party Telephone Yanked Out After Tape Calls for Race War

BY LEE DYE
Times Staff Writer

California may be on the verge of setting a national precedent in determining just how far courts can go in controlling recorded telephone hate messages.

It all stems from action taken recently by the state attorney general's office which brought at least a temporary halt here in a propaganda program sponsored by the National Socialist White People's Party, alias the American Nazi Party.

The attorney general obtained a court order to have an El Monte phone removed on March 13. Since about Feb. 14 the phone had offered recorded messages calling for race war, if necessary, to prevent a mixing of the races.

Law enforcement officials, who had said the messages were protected by the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, finally made their move.

Dep. Atty. Gen. Lawrence R. Tapper and Bernard E. Kane obtained a court order from Municipal Judge Bonnie Lee Martin, who ruled that the message was a violation of California law in that it was designed to "instigate or encourage the perpetration of an unlawful act."

The phone, registered to Joe Tommasi at 10914 Garvey Ave., El Monte, was disconnected March 13. Tommasi is a senior at El Monte Union High School and the El Monte leader of the NSWPP.

Under California Public Utilities Commission Rule 31, Tommasi has until Friday to appeal the decision.

Pierce, who was reached at his headquarters in Arlington, Va., told The Times the NSWPP will appeal the decision.

Could Set Precedent

If the case goes to court it could set a precedent in limits to which law enforcement officials may go to control hate messages.

Prior to the action by the attorney general's office, officials in both that office and the Los Angeles District Attorney's office, as well as Pacific Telephone Co., had said they were powerless to act.

"God knows I wanted to stop it," said Charles Bitner, chief investigator for Pacific Telephone, "but there was nothing we could do."

ment for a relatively low cost and there are literally thousands of the recorders in use for legitimate purposes, such as theater programs and doctor's messages.

"We tried awhile back to require the people broadcasting the message to give their name in the recording," noted George Donnelly, assistant vice president in charge of public affairs for Pacific Telephone. "But a California Supreme Court decision in 1968 threw that out.

"The court ruled that such a requirement was an abridgement of the individual's right to free speech, as guaranteed by the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution," he said.

The First Amendment formed the basis for legal barriers to ending the messages. There is one California law which prohibits acts aimed at promoting violence, but officials did not believe they could win a conviction under that law.

Harry Wood, chief of the appellate division of the Los Angeles District Attorney's office said that in addition to proving the person incited violence, the state also would have to prove that the circumstances under which the act occurred were such as to make the act effective.

Miles J. Rubin, a senior assistant to state Atty. Gen. Thomas Lynch and supervisor of Los Angeles activities by the attorney general's staff, agreed essentially with Wood.

Officials kept watch on the messages. A few days after the recording suggesting that the only effective way to deal with the racial crisis is to kill the blacks, the attorney general's office made its move.

Thus on the basis of one message the NSVPP was put out of the telephone propaganda business in Los Angeles, although other agencies still offer similar messages.

"We doubt very much that the attorney general can enforce this," Pierce told The Times during a telephone interview.

"We have been pretty careful about the wording," he said. "We didn't tell people to go kill anybody. We merely said that's the only effective way to deal with the problem."

One of the messages used here suggested that "race war is a small price to pay" to insure a white America.

Knowledge of the number was spread largely by word-of-mouth, although the El Monte number was printed in at least one college newspaper.

The UCLA Daily Bruin ran the number in a classified ad until Editor Mike Levett learned of the nature of the message. It was then removed.

The state moved to halt the program in the same way it acts against bookies. In his formal announcement, Lynch put it this way:

"Recorded telephone hate messages are not new and most of them are protected by constitutional guarantees of free speech. In this case, however, constitutional limits have clearly been exceeded by the advocacy of mass murder."

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY
Also Known As The American Nazi Party,
American Nazis, The World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists,
the George Lincoln Rockwell Party

On May 29, 1968, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the American Nazi Party - World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS) was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959. It was based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by ADOLF HITLER. The ANP - WUFENS supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews and Communists, through speeches, published literature, demonstrations, and publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate, dominant political party within the United States and in foreign countries.

"The Richmond News Leader" issue dated April 4, 1963, published daily at Richmond, Virginia, stated that this organization is chartered in the State of Virginia as "The George Lincoln Rockwell Party" and that the Virginia Assembly prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia-chartered organization. As of January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to "National Socialist White People's Party", according to Commander ROCKWELL.

On August 25, 1967, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL was assassinated in Arlington, Virginia, near the ANP Headquarters Building. The August 28, 1967 issue of the "Northern Virginia Sun", a daily newspaper published at Arlington, Virginia, stated that MATTHIAS KOEHL, JR., took command of the party after ROCKWELL's assassination.

At 7:00 P.M., 3-13-39, [redacted] called undersigned and advised that he had received a call from [redacted] regarding a meeting of the American Nazi Party that was supposed to take place at Bullard High School at 7:30 P.M.

b7D

Arrived at Bullard at 7:25 P.M. Contacted [redacted] a teacher, [redacted] advised that the club had invited members of the Nazi Party to speak before their club so that they might get an insight as to what this party believed. He said this meeting had been published in the school newspaper, but no additional publicity given as they did not want any incidents. [redacted] was contacted by phone and advised of the circumstances. He stated he had contacted [redacted] and [redacted] was assigned to stand by in case there was any trouble.

b7C
b7D

There were about 130 students and 10 to 12 adults in the audience. There were three young men in brown and black uniforms with the Nazi swastika armband. One of the men, a Joe Tommassi, was the speaker. The other two, [redacted] stood by at each side of the room. Tommassi talked until 8:25 P.M. and then answered questions from the students. At 8:45 P.M. the harrassment of the students toward the speaker became such that Tommassi called a halt to the talk and he and his friends left.

b7C
b7D

The talk was typical hate toward Negroes and Jews, with several plugs for the book "White Power." Tommassi stated there were 600 members of the party in California and 30,000 nationwide. There were no incidents except for the harrassment the students gave the speaker vocally. Pictures of the Nazis were obtained from a student.

The three Nazi party members stated they were from the Los Angeles headquarters.

Sources referred to herein have furnished reliable information in the past.

[redacted] advised that on April 19, 1969, an unofficial meeting of the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP) (See Appendix) took place at the Los Angeles Unit's Headquarters located at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, California. Joseph Tommasi, one of those in attendance, advised that the Legal Aid Society had refused to accept his case concerning the disconnecting of the telephone service ordered by the Public Utility Commission; that the Legal Aid Society refused his case but had referred him to an attorney in Los Angeles who would accept the case. Tommasi said that he had talked to Matt Koehl and the latter had promised to send money to help pay the attorney for his services. Tommasi stated that he was thinking about asking [redacted] of the Francis Parker Yockey Memorial if he could furnish an attorney to fight the Public Utilities Commission.

[redacted] advised that another unofficial meeting of the NSWPP took place at the same location on April 26, 1969. At this meeting Tommasi said he had gone to the attorney and the attorney told him that it would cost the Party up to $10,000.00 to have the telephone service restored to the Garvey Avenue address. Tommasi said he had talked to Dr. Pierce during the week and had told Dr. Pierce how much it would cost to have the telephone service restored; that Dr. Pierce told him to go to the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) and find a non-Jewish attorney. Tommasi said at this meeting that he was going to find a Party member who will go to the telephone company and tell them that he has just leased the Garvey Avenue building and would like to have telephone service connected at the Garvey Avenue address. After one person present at this meeting suggested that the answering machine be connected at his own house on [redacted] in Los Angeles, Tommasi said that he would use the name Fred L. Johnson and tell the telephone company that he was renting a room from this person on [redacted]. Tommasi said that the National Headquarters has sent out letters asking members and supporters to donate money to help the Party fight the Public Utilities Commission and the telephone company for shutting off the telephone service because of the White Power Message. Tommasi advised that [redacted] of "Tijuana", Mexico, sent $200.00 to National Headquarters for the legal fund. b7C

[redacted] advised that at an official meeting of the NSWPP held at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, California, on May 17, 1969, Tommasi stated the ACLU will accept his case against the Public Utilities Commission for shutting off telephone service to the Garvey Avenue address. The person mentioned above in connection with [redacted] Los Angeles, was present at this meeting and said that he had decided against having the White Power Message installed in his house as his insurance man told him that if the insurance company learned of it the company would cancel all of his insurance. b2

[redacted] made available a copy of the National Socialist Bulletin, self-identified as the official internal organ of the NSWPP. This is issue Number 44, dated June 15, 1969. Page three of this bulletin contains the following:

"Following a stiff fight with the California Utilities Commission, the Los Angeles White Power Message is back in operation. Service was suspended in March following an order to the telephone company by the State Attorney General. But, as predicted, this was only a temporary set-back for the Party. The Los Angeles service, with two lines in operation, is again spreading messages to Californians. This permits them to render a maximum of 10,000 messages each week to the Los Angeles area. The new number for the Los Angeles White Power Message is (213) 579-2370.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE
PEOPLE'S PARTY

"We are most grateful to the West Coast National Socialists who contributed funds for the legal battle which made the reinstatement of the Los Angeles White Power Message possible."

On July 1, 1969, the following message was received upon dialing the above-mentioned telephone number:

Hello, I'm Dr. William Pierce with the National Socialist White People's Party.

The first objective in our party program is a White America. That means an America without blacks or jews. An America in which our children and grandchildren will play and go to school with other white children. An America where our young people will grow up in a wholesome white environment. An America in which they will date and marry other young people of our own race. An America in which all their offsprings will be beautiful healthy white babies, in which_____.

X The National Socialist White People's Party wants an America with neither black crime nor jewish degeneracy. An America in which all white people can walk the streets of our land by day or by night without fear of black criminals. An America in which our cultural, social, business, and political life is free of alien jewish influence. We want a white America where every white man and woman can take pride in his rights. An America without swarming black filth in our streets and schools, on our buses and in our places of work. An America in which white people are the sole masters of their own destiny, and we will have a White America one way or another.

There was a time when the problem could have been solved relatively simply had America followed President Lincoln's wise plan. Now it's no longer possible to avoid violence and bloodshed on a massive scale. We are in the first stages of a genuine race war. In the months and years ahead it's _____ will exceed anything we have yet seen. Race war, however, is a small price to pay if through this means we can safeguard the future of our race. In a race war we can eliminate the _____ of white mixing.

For more information and a free "White Power" button, send a stamped self-addressed envelope to Box 5505, that's Box 5505 in Arlington, Virginia.

This has been another in a continuing series of white power messages.

Dr. William Pierce advised a representative of the FBI on March 9, 1969, that the NSWPP was planning on mailing out recordings of the currently weekly telephone message to certain places, which messages had been pre-recorded at the Arlington, Virginia, Headquarters. Pierce described himself as the ideological officer of the NSWPP.

On July 2, 1969, [redacted] advised that telephone number 579-2370 is listed to Thomas Printing Company, 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, California; that this service was installed on June 11, 1969. Billing in connection with the service was to be made to [redacted] Glendale, California.

Bureau letter to Richmond dated 3/4/69, in this case advised the Richmond Office (then Office of Origin) to be alert for remarks such as "kill Negroes on campuses", when monitoring messages from NSWPP Headquarters in Arlington. If such remarks were made Richmond was to advise Washington Field so the United States Attorney in Washington, D. C., could be notified for appropriate action. Los Angeles was instructed not to take these steps as the messages from NSWPP Headquarters would be identical with those utilized in the Los Angeles area. Referenced communications concern the White Power Message which was installed by the Los Angeles Unit of the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP) at its headquarters at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, California, and which was subsequently removed after the State of California Attorney General had obtained a court order. The telephone was disconnected on March 13, 1969.

Recent developments in this matter are the following:

[redacted] advised on 4/23/69, that at an NSWPP meeting held on 4/19/69, at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, California, JOSEPH TOMMASI, leader of the Los Angeles Unit, stated that the Legal Aid Society had refused to accept the case concerning the disconnection of telephone service ordered by the Public Utility Commission. He said he had talked to MATT KOEHL during the week and KOEHL had promised to send money to help pay for an attorney's fees. b2 b7D

[redacted] advised on 4/30/69, that another NSWPP meeting was held at the same location on 4/26/69. TOMMASI said that the Legal Aid Society had referred him to an attorney who would handle the case. The attorney told him it would cost the Party up to $10,000 to have the phone service restored to the Garvey Avenue address. TOMMASI advised Dr. WILLIAM PIERCE, NSWPP National Leader, how much it would cost and Dr. PIERCE told him to contact the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) and find a non-Jewish attorney. TOMMASI said he was going to find a Party member who would go to the telephone company saying that he had just leased the Garvey Avenue building and would like to have the telephone service connected at the Garvey Avenue address.

One member present at this meeting stated that TOMMASI could go to the telephone company and have the answering machine connected at this member's house on Coronado Terrace in Los Angeles. TOMMASI said he would go to the telephone company and have a block of numbers reserved for the Coronado Terrace address and would use the name FRED L. JOHNSON in doing so. He said he would tell the telephone company that he was renting a room at that address.

LA 157-9

TOMMASI said that the National Headquarters had sent out letters asking members and supporters to donate money to help the Party fight the Public Utilities Commission and the telephone company for shutting off the telephone service because of the White Power Message.

b7C

TOMMASI said that [redacted] of Tiajuana, Mexico, sent $200 to National Headquarters for the legal fund.

[redacted] advised on 5/22/69, that on 5/17/69, the NSWPP member on [redacted] said he had decided against having the White Power Message installed in his home as the insurance man said the company would cancel all his insurance if it discovered a White Power Message unit had been installed in the home.

b7C

On that date, 5/17/69, TOMMASI said that the ACLU had accepted the case against the Public Utilities Commission.

[redacted] advised on 6/4/69, that on 5/31/69, TOMMASI stated he was planning on going to the telephone company to try and have telephone service restored to the Garvey Avenue address under a fictitious name.

b7D

[redacted] advised on 6/13/69, that on 6/7/69, an NSWPP meeting was held at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, California. TOMMASI, who was present, showed members a letter from the ACLU attorney which stated that the Attorney General had agreed to let the telephone service be restored to the NSWPP, Garvey Avenue address. The letter advised that the Los Angeles Unit could not use the previous number it had had. TOMMASI said that during the week he had requested service from the telephone company under another name and told the company that there was a printing shop at that address. He said he had gone to the telephone company before he received the letter from the ACLU attorney. TOMMASI said the telephones would be installed on 6/10/69.

LA 157-9

On 6/28/69, [redacted] advised that at an NSWPP meeting at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, California, on 6/28/69, TOMMASI said the White Power Messages were back and no trouble had been experienced with the telephone company regarding hooking up lines for the recorders.

[redacted] advised on 7/2/69, that at the NSWPP meeting on 6/28/69, at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, California, TOMMASI said that the telephone service had been renewed at their Garvey Avenue address and that both answering machines were hooked up.

A copy of this letter is being furnished to San Diego for information in view of the mention of [redacted]

Los Angeles does not contemplate securing the contents of White Power Messages obtainable through the Los Angeles Unit, NSWPP.

Tommasi said he would go to the telephone company during the week and have a block of numbers reserved for the Coronado Terrace address and would use the name Fred L. Johnson in doing so. He said he would tell the telephone company that he was renting a room at that address.

Tommasi said that the National Headquarters had sent out letters asking members and supporters to donate money to help the party fight the Public Utilities Commission and the telephone company for shutting off the telephone service because of the White Power Message. Tommasi said that [redacted] of Tijuana, Mexico, sent $200 to National Headquarters for the legal fund.

b7C

At an NSWPP meeting held in El Monte, California, on May 17, 1969, the NSWPP member on Coronado Terrace said he had decided against having the White Power Message installed in his home after talking to his insurance man. The insurance man said the company would cancel all of his insurance if it discovered a White Power Message unit in the home.

On May 17, 1969, Tommasi said at the NSWPP meeting that the ACLU had accepted the case against the Public Utilities Commission for shutting off the telephone service to the Garvey Avenue address.

On May 31, 1969, Tommasi stated he was planning on going to the telephone company to try and have telephone service restored to the Garvey Avenue address under a fictitious name.

On June 7, 1969, at an NSWPP meeting held at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, Tommasi showed members a letter from the ACLU attorney which stated that the Attorney General had agreed to let the telephone service be restored to the NSWPP, Garvey Avenue address. The letter advised that the Los Angeles Unit could not use the previous number it had had. Tommasi said that during the week he had requested service from the telephone company for the Garvey Avenue address under another name and had told the telephone company that there was a printing shop at that address. He said he had gone to the telephone company before he received the letter from the ACLU attorney. Tommasi said the telephones would be installed on June 10, 1969.

Source One, advised that the June 15, 1969, issue of "NS Bulletin", official organ of the NSWPP carried an article which contained the following information:

Following a fight with the California Utilities Commission, the Los Angeles White Power Message was back in operation. Service had been suspended in March following an order to the telephone company by the State Attorney General.

The Los Angeles service, with two lines in operation, was again spreading messages. This permitted rendering a maximum of 10,000 messages each week to the Los Angeles area.

The new number for the Los Angeles White Power Message was (213) 579-2370.

The "NS Bulletin" expressed gratefulness to the West Coast National Socialists who contributed funds for the legal battle which made the reinstatement of the Los Angeles White Power Message possible.

[] advised that at an NSWPP meeting at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, on June 28, 1969, Tommasi said the White Power Messages were back and no trouble had been experienced with the telephone company regarding hooking up lines for the recorders.

[] advised that at a meeting of the NSWPP held on June 28, 1969, at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, Tommasi said that the telephone service had been renewed at their Garvey Avenue address and that both answering machines were hooked up.

[] advised that at an NSWPP meeting held on July 12, 1969, at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, Tommasi said he had received a very large phone bill from the telephone company for installing the recorders for the White Power Message the second time. He said the bill was $100 this time whereas before the same service was obtained for around $40. Tommasi said he did not know how Arlington was going to react to this bill.

[] advised that at an NSWPP meeting held on July 26, 1969, at Los Angeles Unit Headquarters, Tommasi said that the telephone bill for the month of June was $108. He asked all party members to contribute generously. The collection yielded $18.

[] advised that at the NSWPP meeting held on July 26 1969, at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, Tommasi said they had a problem as the phone bill had not yet been paid. Tommasi said he had told Arlington about the bill but had not heard anything about it. This source advised that at another NSWPP meeting held at the same location on August 2, 1969, Tommasi said that the telephone bill was still delinquent. He said that the telephone company had written him a second notice pertaining to the delinquent account and had written that the telephone line would be disconnected unless the bill was paid in five days.

[] advised that an NSWPP meeting was held at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, on August 9, 1969. Tommasi advised that the rent for the headquarters of the Los Angeles Unit was a week over-due and he asked party members to give as much as possible. The collection was taken and $13 was obtained.

The following are transcripts of the messages heard upon dialing telephone number 579-2370 on September 11 and 15, 1969, respectively:

"Hello, I'm Dr. WILLIAM PIERCE with the National Socialist White People's Party. Well, Senator KENNEDY has gone through his television act and the newspapers have decided that it was so convincing that not only is his future in the Senate safe, but he may yet be a Presidential candidate someday. God forbid, that this spoiled, filthy rich, conniving sneak should ever come near the U. S. Presidency. Unfortunately, the American public may not have a chance now to find out just how rotten TEDDY KENNEDY is. By getting the Massachusetts court to squelch its hearing into the sordid events surrounding the death of an innocent and beautiful young girl, KENNEDY has used his money and influence to keep the truth from the people. Part of that truth is Senator KENNEDY's past record of convictions for speeding and reckless driving. That would tie in perfectly with the report of the witness who heard KENNEDY's car tear past her house at a high rate of speed seconds before the accident. Another part of that truth is KENNEDY's history of irresponsible drinking. Some of his former staff members report that during one campaign flight last year KENNEDY became so intoxicated that he had to be restrained from molesting the young secretaries on the plane. But far worse than either of these things is the evidence that not only did KENNEDY fail to report his accident but that he was desperate to avoid having the police find out about it until he had sobered up. This is substantiated by the fact that when KENNEDY and his friends, trying to figure out what to do, an hour after the accident, were spotted near the scene by a uniformed Deputy Sheriff who asked what the trouble was. They told him to get lost, and the poor girl may have still been alive at that time, trapped in that air pocket in the overturned car. If you would like to know more about the sort of men who make up today's liberal democratic system, just send us a stamped self-addressed envelope at Box 5505 in Arlington, Virginia. This has been another White Power message."

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE
PEOPLE'S PARTY (NSWPP) (See Appendix)

"Hello, I'm Dr. WILLIAM PIERCE with the National Socialist White People's Party. Fifty years ago in September, 1919, ADOLF HITLER founded the National Socialist Movement. He endowed his new movement with a mighty idea based on racial idealism. He taught his followers to put their duty to our race above all other things. He led them in a struggle to build a new order of racial and social health, of beauty and sanity on this earth. The National Socialist Movement immediately earned the fear and hatred of the entrenched materialistic system representing the old order of things. The Reds, whose aim is to promote class warfare, hate National Socialism because it stands for harmony and unity among all valuable elements of our society; and the exploiters and parasites concerned only with piling up more and more money, hate National Socialism because it threatens to stamp out parasites and to halt the exploitation of man and nature by special interests. Most of all the doctrinaire liberals with their sick idea of destroying racial quality by promoting race mixing and false racial equality, hate ADOLF HITLER's great idea because he had taught us to take pride in our race, its uniqueness and its achievements, and to fight to preserve it. And so the system which is an unholy alliance between the selfishness and privilege of right and the liberal sickness of the left, has directed all its hatred and destructive efforts against the national socialist movement. Today, however, the national socialist movement continues to grow stronger while the system, though still wielding the power of the state, is becoming evermore widely recognized for the corrupt and diseased thing that it is. If you're ready for a new order of things, come talk to us. For a starter, just send us a stamped self-addressed envelope at Box 5505 in Arlington, Virginia."

TOMMASI attended an NSWPP meeting at 4375 North Peck Road, El Monte, California, on April 20, 1968. This was a party convention held on HITLER's birthday.

[redacted] (1/10/68 through 5/23/68)

Over the period from January 5, 1968, through May 17, 1968, TOMMASI attended 15 meetings at Western Division Headquarters, NSWPP, 4375 North Peck Road, El Monte, California.

Source advised that at the meeting on February 3, 1968, TOMMASI was sworn in as a probationary "Stormtrooper".

At the meeting held on March 8, 1968, he was sworn in as a full-fledged NSWPP "Stormtrooper". After the meeting held on March 29, 1968, TOMMASI and some others took some "White Power" pamphlets. They said they were going to El Monte Union High School and put the pamphlets on parked cars.

During the meeting on April 5, 1968, the Western Division Headquarters, NSWPP, there was a loud crash on the side of the headquarter building. TOMMASI went outside with a drawn loaded Luger handgun. At that meeting, TOMMASI was promoted to the rank of Group Leader in the "Stormtrooper" section of the party. At the meeting of the NSWPP held on May 3, 1968, WILLIAM KIRSTEIN, the leader of the Los Angeles Unit, advised that ten party members had attended the Peace March with him on April 27, 1968, in Los Angeles, California.

KIRSTEIN said they marched up Broadway at the head of the peace parade yelling, "White power". KIRSTEIN said some of those attending that march would receive party "mission medals". KIRSTEIN gave a "mission medal" to TOMMASI.

[redacted] (1/11/68 through 5/20/68)

Over the period from January 6, 1968, through May 17, 1968, TOMMASI attended eight meetings of the NSWPP at 4375 North Peck Road, El Monte, California.

[redacted] (7/5/68)

TOMMASI attended an unofficial meeting of the NSWPP at [redacted] El Monte, California, on June 28, 1968. The meeting started out with TOMMASI and another person telling how they had been attending meetings of another Nazi group.

b7D

[redacted] (7/10/68)

TOMMASI attended an unofficial meeting of the NSWPP at [redacted] El Monte, California, on July 5, 1968. TOMMASI indicated that he had been present at some picketing earlier in the week in which some hate literature was passed out.

b7C

[redacted] (7/24/68)

HOWARD ELY, Leader of the Los Angeles Unit, NSWPP, stated on July 19, 1968, that picketing had occurred at the "Humphrey for President" Rally at the Paladium on Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California, on July 19, 1968, and that TOMMASI had torn down a red colored flag.

[redacted] (8/9/68)

TOMMASI attended an unofficial meeting of the NSWPP on August 5, 1968, at [redacted] El Monte, California. He said he and others had passed out White Power papers during the preceding week; that they had ridden around Pasadena College throwing papers out of the car.

b7C

LA 157-1599

TOMMASI also said he and another person rode around the Century Plaza Hotel while Vice-President HUMPHREY was staying there. TOMMASI stated there were thousands of people around the hotel. He said he had planned to tear down a Viet Cong flag but decided it would be unsafe to do that. At this meeting, TOMMASI said he had four guns and was going to start stock-piling ammunition. He said he had one shotgun, one carbine, one pistol and another rifle.

[redacted] (1969)

Information dated in August 1968, reflected that Group Leader TOMMASI was affiliated with "The White Party," formerly known as the American Nazi Party, Post Office Box 74401, Los Angeles, California. The National Headquarters was located in Spotsylvania, Virginia. A "Humphrey" Rally in Hollywood, California, had been picketed by peace demonstrators and TOMMASI, who was also there, spotted a red flag which he obtained. TOMMASI was reportedly fined $15.00 for obstruction of traffic.

a party member; that although there was no official Los Angeles Unit, party members should meet, conduct pickets and distribute literature. TOMMASI said he wanted to have a telephone answering machine with a "White Power" message installed in the Los Angeles area. TOMMASI and some others present suggested that party members go to the desert for a weekend to practice shooting and fighting maneuvers to prepare for the race war that was to come. TOMMASI mentioned one person and said he could not be openly involved in party activities as he was going to retire from the Air Force in the near future. TOMMASI asked party members to try and get speaking engagements for MATT KOEHL.

[redacted] (11/5/68)

TOMMASI attended a special meeting for members of the NSWPP, Los Angeles area. The meeting was held on November 2, 1968, at [redacted] Los Angeles, California. TOMMASI opened the meeting by showing pictures of party members picketing the peace parade in Los Angeles on October 26, 1968. TOMMASI was among those involved in the picketing. TOMMASI and others said they had been beaten with sticks by the peace marchers. TOMMASI suggested party members meet on November 17, 1968, and then go to Saugus, California, for target practice. He indicated he would be participating. TOMMASI suggested that the Los Angeles Unit form a secret guerrilla warfare unit. He said he did not want to hold Nazi meetings at a certain person's home, although the person was willing, as it might cause that person to lose his Air Force security clearance. TOMMASI said that he would notify members of the next meeting.

The Peace Action Council (PAC) (See appendix) sponsored a parade and rally in Los Angeles, California, on April 27, 1968. A group of Nazi Party members appeared.
A small fight ensued but no police action was necessary.
Those present included TOMMASI.

LA 157-1599

[redacted] (8/15/68)

The PAC sponsored an anti-Humphrey, anti-Vietnam War demonstration on July 28, 1968, at the Century Plaza Hotel, 2025 Avenue of the Stars, Hollywood, California. During the demonstration, TOMMASI of the ANP was observed as a passenger in a 1964 Ford with license ORK 526 as it cruised about the area bearing banners, "White Power" and "Gas the Viet Cong".

[redacted] (11/8/68)

The PAC conducted demonstrations in Los Angeles on October 26, 1968. Some persons including TOMMASI, attired in Nazi uniforms, tried to interfere with one of the demonstrations. Those so attired bore signs, two of which read, "Victory in Vietnam" and "Communism We Will Bury You".

When the PAC demonstration reached Wilshire and Virgil, four men in Nazi uniforms joined the parade with a sign which was torn down by the parading demonstrators. Blows were struck and the men in Nazi uniforms ran to the head of the parade where another altercation occurred. Those involved included TOMMASI.

[redacted] (10/28/68)

On August 26, 1968, information was received indicating that persons would go to the Long Beach, California, area for the Wallace Rally on that date dressed in Nazi uniforms, and that they would give any demonstrators against WALLACE a hard time. During the Wallace Rally, several persons were observed wearing Nazi emblems. TOMMASI was present.

A "Bulletin" of the NSWPP identified as Volume One, Number One, dated November 19, 1968, reflected that it was issued by Group Leader JOE TOMMASI, "West Coast National Socialist White People's Party", El Monte, California. The bulletin referred to an October 26 th march in Los Angeles protesting United States anti-Communist attitudes. Four members of the NSWPP, led by Group Leader TOMMASI, were also there and carried a "White Power" banner.

This bulletin also reflected on October 11, 1968, TOMMASI was attacked by members of an anti-white Mexican organization.

[redacted] (10/7/68)

"The Storm Trooper" magazine, Volume Eight, Number One, contains pictures and articles on some of the NSWPP members, including TOMMASI of Los Angeles.

TOMMASI attended an unofficial meeting of the NSWPP at [redacted] Los Angeles, on January 4, 1969. TOMMASI indicated there was not time for the party to achieve victory by educating the youth because there was going to be a revolution in the following five years. One person present told TOMMASI that he knew where he could obtain a case of hand grenades. TOMMASI told members to meet on January 12, 1969, and they would be taken to the Saugus, California, area and practice military maneuvers. TOMMASI said that the last time they went to Saugus they put a paperclip in an AR-15 and fired it as an automatic.

Over the period of January 18, 1969, through October 18, 1969, TOMMASI attended 20 meetings of the Los Angeles Unit, NSWPP, at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, California. The following are details regarding TOMMASI's participation in some of these meetings:

At the meeting of January 18, 1969, TOMMASI stated that he had plans for party members to distribute literature in full uniform. Several persons present, including TOMMASI, had pistols around their waists.

At the meeting held on January 25, 1979, TOMMASI said that in the future, picket signs would be on large sticks so that they could be used if party members were attacked. He said party members would meet on February 2, 1969, and go to the desert for military maneuver practice, and the location of the maneuvers would be changed so that party members would not be arrested. During this meeting some teenagers ran by the building and hit the wire on the windows. TOMMASI reached in his desk and removed a .45 caliber pistol and started out the door. Party members told him not to take the pistol outside. TOMMASI said he was only going to point the pistol at them and scare them.

At the meeting on February 1, 1969, TOMMASI said that party members would distribute literature and would be placing it on windshields of parked cars, in telephone booths, and on telephone poles. He said he had written newspapers in the Los Angeles area complaining about the "White Power" message, doing so to get publicity for the party. TOMMASI said that party members would leave for military maneuvers on the following morning, heading for the Saugus area. He also said if a riot should break out, party members should report to headquarters with all their weapons and ammunition.

At the meeting held on March 15, 1969, TOMMASI announced that the telephone company had discontinued service to the building of the Los Angeles Unit, NSWPP, and that the Attorney General of the State of California was responsible.

He said he called MATT KOEHL and explained the difficulties he had encountered from the message which told listeners to kill Negroes. Source advised that at this meeting it was learned TOMMASI and two others were planning to go to Red Rock Canyon on March 16, 1969, to fire weapons and hold confidential talks. At this meeting, TOMMASI showed party members a film taken in Saugus, California, about one month before showing party members firing weapons and practicing military maneuvers.

At the meeting of March 29, 1969, TOMMASI said that the Los Angeles Unit would picket the "peace march" on April 6, 1969, on Wilshire Boulevard. He said he would be among the members and supporters in the picket line.

With reference to the meeting of April 5, 1969, TOMMASI spoke of their counter picket to the "peace march" in Los Angeles on April 6, 1969, and said that he would carry an NSWPP flag attached to a flagstaff. He said the sticks and flagstaffs should be used to fight off attacks. One of the persons present said that he had received a letter telling him to help TOMMASI run the unofficial Los Angeles Unit and that it would soon be turned into an official NSWPP Unit.

At the April 12, 1969, meeting, TOMMASI said he was planning to hold memorial services for ADOLPH HITLER on the steps of the Los Angeles City Hall on Sunday April 20, 1969.

At the meeting held on April 19, 1969, TOMMASI said that party members and supporters would commemorate ADOLPH HITLER's birthday on the steps of the City Hall. After the meeting, TOMMASI was overheard to say that if a race war broke out, he was going to shoot a certain party member while in the Los Angeles Unit Headquarters building, then throw the body outside and say that "the niggers killed him".

At the meeting held on April 26, 1969, TOMMASI said that the memorial service held for HITLER on the steps of the City Hall had received no publicity. He was among those who participated.

LA 157-1599

At the meeting held on May 31, 1969, TOMMASI said that party members would have to start participating in more street action. He said the Los Angeles Unit, NSWPP, would start experimenting in making Molotov cocktails. He assigned various experiments and said that the party members receiving assignments were to report on their progress each week.

At the meeting held on June 7, 1969, TOMMASI asked how party members were coming along with their Molotov cocktail projects. He said that if racial riots broke out in Los Angeles, party members would only fight the Negroes at night. Source advised TOMMASI had purchased a high-powered rifle.

At the meeting held on June 28, 1969, TOMMASI asked one person present if the latter had experimented with Molotov cocktails using certain ingredients. TOMMASI said party members would have to get together and go to the desert and test their Molotov cocktails.

At the meeting held on July 26, 1969, TOMMASI said he expected to attend the NSWPP Congress to be held in August and September 1969, at National Headquarters.

At the meeting held on August 9, 1969, TOMMASI said he would attend the Party Congress in Arlington, Virginia, on August 30, 31, 1969, and September 1, 1969. He was to attend it [redacted] and would be gone about two weeks. While away, they planned to visit ED FIELDS of the National States Rights Party (see appendix). b7C

At the meeting held on September 8, 1969, TOMMASI told of his trip to attend the Party Congress. He said he talked to the National Leader, MATT KOEHL, and to Dr. WILLIAM PIERCE. He said he brought 15 stink bombs back from Arlington; that when race-mixing movies were shown in the Los Angeles area, party members would attend and set off the stink bombs. TOMMASI urged party members to get on the street and sell "White Power" newspapers.

At the meeting held on October 18, 1969, TOMMASI said that in the future, meetings of the Los Angeles Unit would be held in a house he had rented on Exline Street in El Monte, California. He said he had moved party equipment to the house and was going to set up a printing press in the garage. He said he wanted party members to put up newspaper vending machines in their areas in order to sell the "White Power" paper. After that meeting, party members made plans to go to the Saugus, California, area on October 19, 1969, for target practice and TOMMASI said he would be among those going.

Over the period from January 11, 1969, through October 18, 1969, TOMMASI attended 27 meetings of the NSWPP at 10914 Garvey Avenue, El Monte, California. Details regarding his participation in some of these meetings follow:

TOMMASI, at the meeting held on February 1, 1969, mentioned he had passed out literature in El Monte, California, on January 31, 1969. The literature had been obtained from National Headquarters. After the meeting, TOMMASI and others went to distribute literature in El Monte.

LA 157-1599

At the meeting held on February 8, 1969, TOMMASI exhibited a movie of him and others who had gone to the mountains for target practice the preceding Sunday.

At the meeting held on March 15, 1969, TOMMASI said he had called MATT KOEHL in Arlington, Virginia, about the order to the telephone company to cut off power for the "White Power" message service and KOEHL said he would help get the messages operating again.

At the April 5, 1969, meeting. TOMMASI said that everyone participating in the demonstration against the "peace creeps" on April 6, 1969, were to be in complete uniform with boots and Sam Brown belts if they had them.

At the meeting held on April 12, 1969, TOMMASI spoke of the anti-picketing of the peace march held on April 6, 1969.

At the meeting held on June 28, 1969, TOMMASI said there would not be anymore target practice until the telephone number of the "White Power" message was sufficiently circulated about.

At the meeting held on July 26, 1969, TOMMASI asked persons present to spread literature on Sunday morning. Source advised TOMMASI had attended a "Right Power" meeting at the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA).

At the meeting held on September 8, 1969, TOMMASI reported about his trip East to NSWPP Headquarters in Arlington, Virginia.

On October 18, 1969, TOMMASI took those present to the new location of the Los Angeles Unit, to 12107½ Exline Street, El Monte, California. TOMMASI was moving there and the "White Power" message service was to operate from there.

An article in the issue dated February 28, 1969, concerned an advertisement for a "White Power" telephone message in the paper reportedly placed by TOMMASI. According to the article, TOMMASI admitted to being a member of the "Nazi Party" and that he hated Jews because "they're Communists".

On March 13, 1969, a meeting was held at Bullard High School, Fresno, California, at which Nazi party members had been invited to speak so an insight could be obtained as to what that party believed. Three men in brown and black uniforms with Nazi Swastika armbands were present from Los Angeles Headquarters. One was TOMMASI, who was the speaker. The talk expressed hate towards Negroes and Jews.

APPENDIXNATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont", a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party, to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt", self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP), reported that rank-and-file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party", with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of Klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

The following editions of "The Thunderbolt" advised of the indicated changes of address:

Issue	New Address
June 1960	Post Office Box 783 Birmingham, Alabama
July 1965	Post Office Box 184 Augusta, Georgia
April 1967	Post Office Box 6263 Savannah, Georgia

On August 4, 1965, a source advised that EDWARD R. FIELDS, the Information Director of the NSRP and Editor of "The Thunderbolt", is the individual who actually controls the NSRP.

PEACE ACTION COUNCIL

The "People's World", a weekly west coast communist newspaper, in its issue of November 5, 1966, in an article on Page 3, describes the Peace Action Council (PAC) as "a coordinating agency for peace activists" which conducts emergency mobilizations and demonstrative actions against the war in Vietnam.

On July 22, 1966, a source reported that the PAC, which has also been known as the Greater Los Angeles Peace Action Council (GLAPAC), was formed during the early summer of 1966 for the express purpose of protesting the war in Vietnam during the National Governors Conference held in Los Angeles, California from July 4 to July 8, 1966. Following the conclusion of that conference, the PAC members decided to continue as a coordinating group to sponsor similar protest demonstrations at later dates.

This source was recontacted on August 1, 1969, and reported that the PAC continues to operate under the same basic concept, noting that in 1968 and 1969, PAC had sponsored demonstrations against Presidents JOHNSON and NIXON, protesting the policies of their respective administrations governing American military commitments in Vietnam. PAC presently maintains its headquarters at 555 North Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90004, telephone 462-8188.

NORTH AMERICAN CONGRESS OF
NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLES PARTY
SEPTEMBER 5-7, 1970

The August issue of the "NS Bulletin", self-identified official internal organ of the National Socialist White People's Party, contained the following announcement; which is set forth verbatim:

"Members and supporters across the continent have been showing an unusually large amount of interest in this year's North American Congress over the Labor Day weekend.

"The Congress, which will be held 5-7 September in the Arlington area, will feature Party speakers from the U. S. and Canada and is expected to draw a large number of National Socialists. It will be the second such gathering since the Second World War.

"All members and supporters in good standing. . . . are invited to attend. To be eligible, make sure your dues or pledges are paid up in advance."

A characterization of the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP) is attached in the appendix.

On September 8, 1970, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the above congress was held and began with registration at Party headquarters at 2507 North Franklin, Arlington, Virginia, about 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, September 5, 1970. Sympathizers, supporters and members were given programs and delegate badges, copies of which are attached in the appendix.

This source advised that after preliminary announcements, the delegates went to the Holiday Inn on Telegraph Road in Alexandria, Virginia, where the congress was officially convened in the Washington Room. Approximately 120 people were present for the Saturday session and most of these were white males in their 20's and 30's.

William Kirshtein of Fresno, California, served as the master of ceremonies and he introduced Matt Koehl, the Commander of the Party. Koehl spoke about 45 minutes and most of his speech was a denunciation of all Jews and praise for George Lincoln Rockwell, the deceased commander.

At the conclusion of this speech, Robert Homan addressed the audience and delivered a 30-minute speech along the lines of the preceding speech. He criticized all Jews and Negroes and complained of FBI and police attempts at infiltrating the Party through the use of informants.

William Kirshtein, the Security Officer for the Congress, was the next speaker and he read the Congress regulations. Copies of the regulations and rules were distributed to all of the delegates and a copy of these regulations are attached in the appendix.

Following his remarks, Commander Matt Koehl addressed the delegates again and spoke approximately one hour. He spoke on the necessity of the ~~existence~~ of the National Socialists.

This source stated that the convention was adjourned for lunch at approximately 1:30 p.m. and that it reconvened at approximately 2:30 p.m. after the delegates returned from the various restaurants in the area in which they had eaten lunch.

NORTH AMERICAN CONGRESS OF NATIONAL
SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLES PARTY
SEPTEMBER 5-7, 1970

Source stated that from approximately 2:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m., various Party members throughout the United States gave reports on their local progress in recruiting for the Party and establishing Nazi bookstores. The speakers were primarily from California, Ohio and Maryland. Following these local reports, Commander Koehl again addressed the delegates and spoke until approximately 5:30 p.m.

At the conclusion of his speech, most of the delegates left the Holiday Inn and returned to the Party headquarters at 2507 Franklin, Arlington, Virginia. Most of the delegates utilized this time to purchase literature which was available, secure items for their uniforms which they were missing, rehearse for the Sunday ritual, and obtain applications for members and supporters. The source further advised that at this time the Party photographed some of the new members who had joined the Party during this Congress. Informal discussion continued in Party headquarters and most of the members left around 11:30 p.m. that evening.

This source advised that most of the delegates reconvened at Party headquarters in Arlington, Virginia, around 11:00 a.m. on Sunday, September 6, 1970. After a few announcements they drove to the Holiday Inn in Alexandria where the morning session commenced. Commander Koehl and Robert Homan both gave long speeches primarily praising Adolph Hitler and George Lincoln Rockwell. At approximately 12:30 p.m., most of the delegates left the motel and went to L'Enfant Square, 9th and Constitution Avenues, Washington, D.C., where a Party rally was scheduled. Approximately 65 of the delegates were dressed in official SS uniforms and the majority of these served as the security guards for the Nazi speakers on the platform. Approximately 30 other delegates were in civilian clothes and were designated as "spotters" for the party and their job was to mingle with the crowd and isolate any troublemakers in a non-violent manner if possible.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NORTH AMERICAN CONGRESS OF NATIONAL
SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLES PARTY
SEPTEMBER 5-7, 1970

This source stated that the rally lasted until approximately 4:00 p.m. and consisted mainly of speeches by Commander Koehl, William Kirstein, Robert Homan, and Dave Duke, Nazi supporter from Louisiana State University. During their speeches, other Nazi supporters passed out Nazi literature to the members of the crowd which had gathered.

This source stated that many members of the crowd, particularly those of the "hippy" type, were very antagonistic toward the Nazi supporters and they repeatedly shouted obscenities at the speakers and threw bottles, flashlight batteries and other missiles at the speakers' platform. Some of the hippies who got too close to the speakers' platform were sprayed with chemical mace by the SS security guards. Although a few minor scuffles were broken up, no arrests were apparently made by the local police who were scattered throughout the crowd.

At the conclusion of the rally most of the delegates returned to Party headquarters in Arlington, Virginia, where they remained until about 7:00 p.m. at which time they returned to the Holiday Inn.

The Sunday evening ceremonies consisted of various marches, songs and the rite of the Valkyrie fire. A copy of the program for these ceremonies is attached in the appendix. At the conclusion of these ceremonies a movie was shown to the delegates beginning at approximately 9:00 p.m. The movie was entitled "Triumph Of The Will" and it was a black and white documentary film consisting in the main of speeches by Adolph Hitler and his comrades in 1934. The entire movie, which lasted approximately two and one-half hours, was in German, although there were English sub-titles. At the conclusion of the movie, the Sunday evening session was concluded and most of the delegates left the Holiday Inn.

NORTH AMERICAN CONGRESS OF NATIONAL
SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLES PARTY
SEPTEMBER 5-7, 1970

This source advised that the scheduled Monday session for the Congress included speeches by Dave Duke, William Kirstein, and Commander Koehl. The Congress was scheduled to terminate at approximately 12:00 noon on Monday, September 7, 1970.

This source further advised that during the entire conference no specific requests were made for funds nor were any collections taken up. The only money which was collected by the Party was for the initial registration fees and for the literature, armbands, etcetra, which were sold at Party headquarters to the delegates. Source also stated that the Party officers repeatedly told the delegates not to have anything to do with the recent suspended officers of the Party. These suspended officials were announced as Robert A. Lloyd (former Party executive officer), William L. Pierce (former Party general secretary), Pierce's brother in Ohio, Barrett Hamilton, and Bob Brannen. Commander Koehl spoke on the treachery and disloyalty of these former officers and stated that the Party would "take care of them". Other Party officers stated that Pierce had been thrown out of the Party and at the time he still held approximately $4500 of Party money which he refused to return. It was indicated by some of the officials that if Pierce did not return this money he might meet with a "serious accident".

ADJOURNMENT

REGULATIONS

This Congress is being held for strictly internal purposes and in no way involves public demonstration. Delegates are cautioned to keep this in mind at all times during the Congress and to conduct themselves in a serious and sober manner which will lend itself to this purpose. Specifically, we ask for the co-operation and compliance of all delegates in observing the following regulations:

1. There will be no drinking of alcoholic beverages at the Congress meeting site, nor will excessive drinking of any kind be tolerated.
2. There will be no smoking during sessions of the Congress. Smoking outside the immediate Congress meeting site will be permitted during recess periods.
3. No armbands may be worn, except at formal ceremonies only. Uniforms may be worn only during ceremonies by persons selected in advance for the security detail or by special functionaries in the ceremonies.
4. No NS emblems or insignia of any kind are to be worn or displayed immediately outside the Congress meeting site.
5. No literature, stickers, programs or NS material of any kind is to be left, posted or disseminated in the vicinity of the Congress.
6. There is to be no demonstrating of any kind in the vicinity of the Congress, whether by wearing armbands, posting stickers, distributing literature, saluting, agitating, publicity stunts, displaying NS-type slogans in or on automobiles or by any other means.
7. Delegates are to conduct themselves at all times in a responsible, circumspect, NS Manner, avoiding any personal or racial incidents or loud, insulting and boisterous behavior of any kind. They are further advised to respect all local laws and authority, as well as all public and private property in the vicinity of the Congress.
8. No illegal, provocative-type talk will be tolerated. Should there be any such talk, it is to be reported immediately to the Security Officer, Mr. William Kirstein, for further action. Delegates are cautioned against engaging in even facetious conversation about violence and illegality with other delegates.
9. Delegates are not to make any statement whatsoever or give any interview to news reporters. All newsmen are to be referred to Commander Koehl.
10. No picture-taking will be allowed on Saturday, 5 September. The taking of photographs by individuals at other times will be permitted on a limited basis only upon written permission secured before 9:00 p.m., Saturday, 5 September, from Mr. William Kirstein and in accordance with his directives.

Failure by any delegate to comply with any of these regulations will be deemed cause for immediate dismissal from the Congress.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST BATTLE SONG

We march and fight to death or on to victory;
Our might is right -- no traitor shall prevail;
Our hearts are steeled against the fiery gates of hell;
No shot or shell can still our mighty song!
Our hearts are steeled against the fiery gates of hell;
No shot or shell can still our mighty song!

Our sword is truth, our shield is faith and honor;
In age or youth our hearts and minds we pledge;
Though we may die to save our people and our land;
This cause will stand, our millions marching on!
Though we may die to save our people and our land;
This cause will stand, our millions marching on!

We close our ranks in loyalty and courage;
To God our thanks for comrades tried and true;
Let traitors quail and fear the wrath of honest men,
Who rise again to smash the devil's throng!
Let traitors quail and fear the wrath of honest men,
Who rise again to smash the devil's throng!

We march and fight to death or on to victory;
Our might is right -- no traitor shall prevail;
Our hearts are steeled against the fiery gates of hell;
No shot or shell can still our mighty song!
Our hearts are steeled against the fiery gates of hell;
No shot or shell can still our mighty song!

'WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY' Nazi emblem lives on in El Monte

By ROBERT BALLENGER
Post-Advocate Staff Writer

EL MONTE — The National Socialist White People's Party is an organization of idealists dedicated to making the world safe for white supremacy.

The district party headquarters is in a converted house in El Monte. The house is surrounded by a five-foot high chain link fence.

When the building is closed, a Doberman pinscher is on guard in the front yard. When it is open, the man on duty wears a pistol.

The headquarters of the National Socialist White People's Party may be the only political party building in the country that has such security precautions — or needs them.

There have been attacks on the party building. These have progressed from verbal assaults to an occasional egg or bottle thrown at the building. More recently, the headquarters was shot at.

The party is not a political organization in the sense of nominating and running candidates for public office.

The inside of the headquarters is decorated with Nazi flags on the walls. The front hall is filled with pamphlets and literature on shelves.

In the back of the house there is a meeting room with rows of folding chairs, more Nazi flags and a picture of Adolf Hitler on the wall.

Joe Tommasi runs the headquarters and is in charge of the activities of the 600 members and official supporters that constitute the Southern California cadre of the party.

Tommasi considers the party to be as much a racial movement as a political party. First known as the American Nazi party, it was founded in the 1960s by George Lincoln Rockwell.

Rockwell ran the party from his headquarters in Arlington, Va., until one of his disgruntled followers assassinated him in 1967.

According to Tommasi, Rockwell started the party through its three-phased development. The first phase consisted of becoming known and had party members holding open air rallies and picketing Negro performers such as Sammy Davis Jr.

Phase two began with the training of what Tommasi calls "elite leaders." These are the people who conduct party affairs on the local level. According to Tommasi, the party is now completing the second phase.

The party is in preparation for phase three of its operation. This final phase calls for the party to organize masses of people and to achieve power. Tommasi believes that this will be accomplished within a year.

Student and racial unrest have made the National Socialists more hopeful of receiving public support. In one sense, the party welcomes increased activity by the New Left and race riots.

"Every time there's a riot, our meetings are packed," Tommasi says.

Although party literature attacks student radicals, the party has much in common with the New Left. Tommasi resents comparisons drawn between the National Socialists and extreme right-wing political groups.

"We're not right wingers," he says. "We're revolutionaries."

The difference, as he sees it, is that extreme conservatives see the problems of society and attempt to patch them up. National Socialists see the system as hopelessly corrupt.

"We want to ~~rip it down~~ and replace it with a new order," Tommasi says.

The National Socialist cause is not popular and Tommasi knows it. The swastika symbolism of the party, its association with Adolf Hitler and the bloodstained history of Nazi Germany all weigh against public acceptance of the party.

"We have a product for sale and nobody wants it right now," Tommasi admits. He thinks the problem is that people are too attached to their cars, color television sets and other material possessions.

But Tommasi looks — almost with a sense of religious expectancy — to the day when he thinks electrical power will go off, when chaos will erupt and society will collapse.

Race war, Tommasi predicts, will break out "and the color of a person's skin will be his uniform."

When this happens "people will want help and someone to give them guidance," Tommasi says. The National Socialists expect people to turn to them for leadership.

Once they have power, he party looks forward to founding an "authoritarian republic." Many of the details remain to be worked out, but it would involve abolition of the "one man, one vote" democratic system. Tommasi calls this principle "insane" because it assumes that one person is pretty much as capable as the next.

Under the National Socialist ideal political power would be restricted to landowners. And all landowners would be white. Any non-white survivors of the racial civil war would be shipped back to their countries of origin.

The word "socialism" in the party title is not just a holdover from the Nazi past but would exist in what Tommasi calls "racial socialism." Interest-free loans would be granted to white citizens who could demonstrate that the money would be used for "productive ends."

High on the National Socialist list of things to accomplish in their state would be racial "purification." As in Nazi Germany, Jews, Negroes and other racial and ethnic minorities would be eliminated from the state — "weeding of the garden," as Tommasi calls it.

Tommasi admits that today the party has a strange following.

"We attract nuts and get rid of them in a hurry — unless we need their money," he says. The party is based on strict adherence to the orders of the leadership.

Tommasi is convinced that this "leadership principle" forms the essential strength of the party. He believes that the party is unified, but that the forces opposing it, both left and right, are not.

Tommasi is not surprised about the rash of bombings conducted by New Left radicals.

"I've predicted it for years," he says. "For years they had peace marches and all they've gotten is sore feet."

Like them, he is against the system. Unlike them, he says the National Socialists "have to stay legal right now."

The party plans to exploit the chaos that will result from the racial civil war they predict and live for. According to Tommasi, party members are storing up food, water, guns and ammunition in preparation for the revolution.

Until then, Joe Tommasi sits at the National Socialist White People's Party headquarters dreaming, waiting and hoping.

Hello, this is lieutenant JOE TOMMASTI (phonetic) of the Nationalist-Socialist White Peoples Party. Last week a shocking atrocity occurred at an integrated Alexandria, Virginia High School. It wasn't recorded in the papers, it wouldn't have made very nice reading. It wouldn't have helped the cause of racial equality. DANNY CUTLER, a senior at George Washington High School, was surrounded by a gang of black apes outside the school and knocked to the ground. Then holding him down so he wouldn't move the cannibals pulled out their knives. As the poor soul lay there screaming in agony they began to carve him up. When he was found he was badly mutilated, his nose had been sliced in two with the flesh and cartilage completely severed.

What did the school officials do about this hideous atrocity? Did they have any of the black savages arrested? Did they expel any of them? Did they so much as reprimand them? No, their only concern was to scrub the blood off the pavement as quick as possible and hush the whole thing up. That's the state of affairs at George Washington High School. The niggers are allowed to carry on like they own the place. They can bring knives, chains and black jacks to school and nothing is done about it. White students are shaken down and robbed, teachers are jumped and beaten. White girls are pawed over, molested, and attacked by gangs of grinning black apes.

Is this to happen in California schools? Do you as a white student want to live among these savages, one-hundred years out of the jungles? Well it doesn't look like you have very much to say about. Unless you organize, and I mean organize now.

We have a student organization called the White Student Alliance. And we're going to take care of this mess by any means necessary. The White Student Alliance is an organization for the white student. It's about time we, as white students stuck together and fought these savages. If you're a white student or a parent interested in building a healthy society, one in which white young people can go to school and get a decent education without fear of the black terrorism, then write to the White Student Alliance, Post Office Box 2206 in El Monte, California. That's the White Student Alliance, Post Office Box 2206 in El Monte, California. Or come to the National-Socialist White Peoples Party headquarters at 4375 North Peck Road in El Monte, California. That's the National Socialist White Peoples Party headquarters at 4375 North Peck Road in El Monte, California. We'll give you a free selection of our party literature. We are open seven days a week, from 11:30 in the morning to 10:30 at night.

This has been another White Power message.

1970 Fall Building Campaign Launched

In a special letter accompanying this Bulletin, Commander Koehl has just announced the start of the 1970 Fall Building Campaign. Very simply, the goal of the campaign is to make it possible for the Party to complete its Phase Two priorities so it can undertake real mass action in the coming months as political and racial conditions deteriorate throughout the country.

With everyone joining in one great concerted effort, this goal can be realized. All that each one is asked to do is to double his dues, pledge or contribution for just one month. Of course, we hope there will be some who will go beyond this minimum.

If you are serious about wanting to see some real National Socialist success in the coming months, don't fail to do your part at this time. Use the special card being sent to you with this Bulletin to show your support for this Campaign. Just fill it out and return it to Party Headquarters without delay.

If everyone pitches in, we will be able to meet our goal in building the Party this year, just as we have succeeded in meeting our other goals in the past.

Stormtroopers 'Greet' Golda in D. C.

An ST contingent was on hand to 'welcome' Israeli Prime Minister Golda Meir when she arrived at the White House on 18 September to demand more arms and deeper U. S. involvement on the side of the Jews in the Middle East. Led by Capt William Kirstein, the group carried placards reading "No More Jewish Wars" and "Golda--Go Home."

Arriving early, the troopers forced Golda to take a side entrance to avoid confrontation with the National Socialists outside the main gate. Afterwards, they handed out "Stop the Slaughter" leaflets, describing Zionist atrocities, to passersby. There was considerable favorable response.

The demonstration was part of Party efforts to call public attention to the phony Jewish attempt to get American troops out of Vietnam so they can be sent to fight for the Jews in the Middle East. This is a powerful issue--one which every National Socialist should take full advantage of, especially in trying to reach those young people who have been associated with and oriented toward the so-called 'peace' movement.

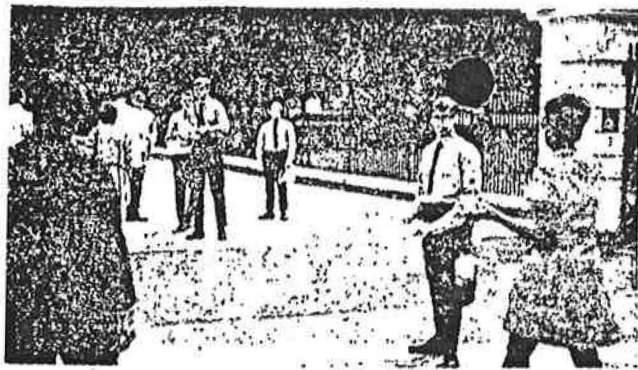

Members of the American Nazi party picket Israeli Premier Golda Meir's visit at the White House.

ST Commissions and Promotion

Charles Lawrence of Akron, Ohio, and Joseph Tommasi of Los Angeles have been commissioned ST Lieutenants by Commander Koehl. William Kirstein has been promoted to Captain in the ST.

Persons interested in participating in ST activity should contact Capt Kirstein. Organized ST activity is currently limited to the Washington, D. C., Los Angeles and Akron-Cleveland areas.

National Council Named

Commander Koehl has announced formation of a National Council to advise him in important matters affecting Party policy. Named to the Council have been John Krenzer--president, Robert Homan, William Kirstein, Charles Lawrence, Omar Miller, Joseph Tommasi and Chris Vidnjevich.

Eventually, the Council will number at least 11 persons. The National Council replaces the Council of Succession in the function of choosing a successor to head the Party in the event of the death of the Commander.

Impressed by Congress

Here are some reactions from persons who attended the recent North American Congress:

I was very impressed by the Party Congress I attended Sept. 6, especially the rally in D. C., where I was lucky enough to have broken the skull of one of the Jew-Hippie so-and-so's who were trying to disrupt the speeches of the Commander and the others.

The Commander's speech was the most stirring I've ever heard. If every sane White person in America could get this message, then National Socialism would surely overcome anything and everything in its path.

Please keep me informed on coming rallies, as I intend to attend all rallies in D. C. and elsewhere from now on.

L. D., New York

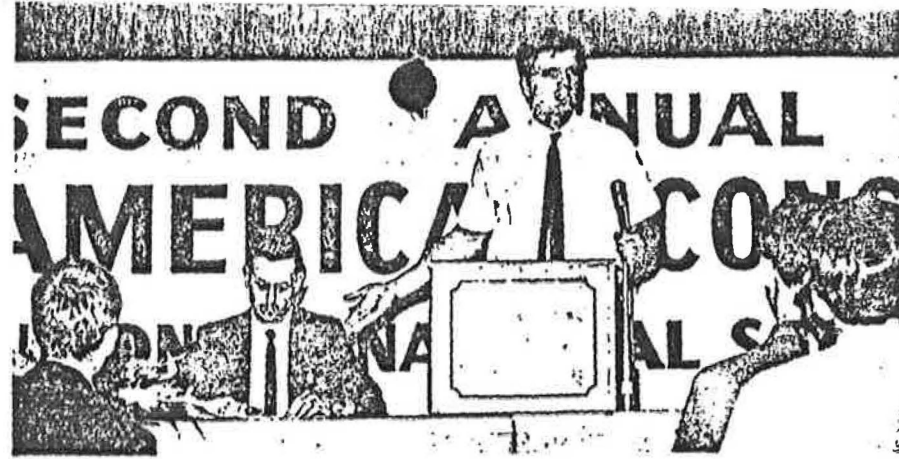

I cannot really begin to tell you how much I enjoyed the Party Congress. Even though I attended just the morning session and the rally on Sunday, I came away ablaze with zeal for the National Socialist cause and unconditional loyalty to Commander Koehl. Commander Koehl's speeches, particularly the one at the rally had me fighting back tears of pride--I felt a spiritual sensation, an incredible intensification of all my feelings. Well, no need to ramble on. I am positive each and every National Socialist felt the same.

H. G., New York

Being a delegate and attending the activities of the second North American Congress was indeed inspirational. Triumph of the Will showed an altogether different Germany than I have been accustomed to seeing.

P. C., Maryland

CONGRESS PHOTOS STILL AVAILABLE: Glossy 8x10 photographs of the second annual North American Congress are now available from Party Headquarters. Taken by a professional photographer, these unique pictures will not only make valuable souvenirs for those who attended the Congress, but will also provide fascinating glimpses of this historic occasion for all those National Socialist comrades unable to attend. The photos come in a set of 12 for $5. A second set of representative shots may also be obtained at the same price. This offer is for a limited time only--and this will be the last announcement--so order your copies of these historic prints today.

Giving local reports are (l. to r.) Joseph Tommasi of Los Angeles, Charles Lawrence of Akron, Ohio, and John Beattie of London, Ont.

Wave of the Future

A new generation is growing up--a generation which will carry the banner of National Socialism to victory in North America. Characterized by sound racial instincts and a spirit of revolutionary militance--and unfettered by any of the old bourgeois, conservative hangups--these young people are finding their way into our Movement in ever-increasing numbers. Typical of this tough, forthright, blunt-spoken breed is a 15-year-old comrade from Los Angeles, whose recent letter to us we publish below. A Jew had been bothering him on his job, trying to get him fired. Here is how he dealt with the situation:

"Remember the Jew I told you about in my last letter? Well, on August 16 he came to my job again. I saw him pull up in his white Ford and thought, 'Not again!' So when he got out of his car I walked up to him and said, 'Emmerman, I'm going to have it out with you!' As soon as I finished the last word, I hit him square in the jaw. The force from the blow sent him back a few feet. Then I proceeded onward. My next blow caught him in the stomach. Emmerman doubled up and I came down on his back with both clenched fists.

"Then he started to fight back. Being the vile Jew he is, most of his punches either missed or didn't have any effect on me and gave me the opportunity I needed to work him over good.

"On the next day, the 17th, Emmerman called me at my parent's house. He threatened to 'get me' because of what I had done to him. So I went to work, along with my .38 special revolver. Emmerman arrived around 6 p.m. that night. You should have seen him! His face was swollen, scarred and bruised, black and blue! He started saying how he would get his revenge on me, so I pulled out my revolver and told him to 'get the hell out of here before I shoot you!' So Phil Emmerman drove off."

Party Telephones

The National Headquarters telephone number is still (703) 524-2175.

The telephone number for the Party's business subsidiaries, Asgard Press and NS Publications, is still (703) 524-3073.

There was a brief disruption of service recently when an individual associated with this Movement until just a short time ago attempted to have service disconnected.

Party Salute

The Party has two separate and distinct greetings--a greeting for internal, or private, use and a greeting for external, or public, purposes. The Party's private greeting is "Heil Hitler!" The public greeting of the Party is "White Power!"

Normally, the private greeting is to be used (a) during National Socialist ceremonies and (b) when only other National Socialists are present.

The public greeting is normally to be used (a) at public meetings, (b) outdoors and (c) over the telephone.

COMING EVENTS

The Party will stage a demonstration against Nixon's no-win policy in Vietnam on Saturday, 3 October, in Washington, D.C. Persons wishing to participate should be at Party Headquarters no later than 10 a.m. Regulation ST dress will be long-sleeve khaki shirt, armband, dark trousers (preferably black) and black tie. Combat boots and wide black belt are optional.

An outdoor public rally is scheduled for Sunday, 18 October, in L'Enfant Square at 9th & Constitution on the Mall in Washington starting at 2 p.m. Participants should be at Headquarters by 12 noon. ST uniform will be the same as above.

Hello this is Lieutenant JOE. TOMMASI of the National Socialist White People's Party. As I speak to you, the war in Viet Nam continues to drag on day after day, week after week, month after month, year after year with still no end in sight.

Why after nearly nine years and the sacrifice of nearly 50,000 American lives is the United States still bogged down in Viet Nam? Why has the Viet Nam war become the longest conflict in American history? Why is a first rate military power like the United States unable to achieve victory over a tenth rate power like North Viet Nam. The answer lies in a policy of deliberate treason in the biggest places. NIXON reaffirmed this treason of policy on May 14, 1969 when he declared his regime had ruled out the possibility of a military victory over the Communist enemies in Viet Nam. Of course it's impossible to win a war as long as the Commander-in-Chief is stabbing his own men in the back with such a policy. But then a political opportunist like NIXON would not want to appear so extreme as to demand a victory in Viet Nam. He would rather maintain his modern image and keep big business profits up at the same time by sacrificing the lives of thousands of young Americans in a never ending no win war. The National Socialist position on Viet Nam is very clear. American involvement in the Viet Nam conflict must end. The end to our involvement must follow a military victory over the Communists, using whatever means necessary to accomplish this task with a minimum loss.

American lives. At the same time nationalizing all war profits. The treasonist system in this country, responsible for the no win policy which has wasted nearly 50,000 American lives so far, must be smashed and replaced by a new order dedicated to the security and well being of the white race. If you agree with us and feel that RICHARD NIXON is a traitor and that the rotten system must be destroyed and that the, it's creators must be dealt with accordingly then write to Post Office Box 2206 in El Monte, California, 91732. That's Post Office Box 2206 in El Monte, California, 91732. Or come to the National Socialist White People's Party Headquarters at 4375 North Peck Road in El Monte, California. That's 4375 North Peck Road in El Monte, California, for the National Socialist White People's Party Headquarters. We'll give you a free selection of our party literature. We are open 7 days a week from 10:30 in the morning till 10:30 in the evening. This has been another White Power message.

"As a matter of principle the movement must so educate its members that they do not regard the struggle as something idly cooked up, but as that which they themselves are striving for. Therefore, they must not fear the hostility of their enemies, but must feel that it is the presupposition for their own right to exist. They must not shun the hatred of the enemies of our race and our world-view and its manifestations; they must long for them. And among the manifestations of this hatred are lies and slander."

Cleveland Bookstore Reopened

Undaunted by a court-ordered eviction from their first bookstore, Casey Kalemka and other Cleveland-area National Socialists, promptly went to work looking for a new place. Their untiring efforts were rewarded and they found another site just across the block and down the street from the first store.

The new address is 10012 Lorain Avenue. Its hours are from noon to 6 on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The Cleveland Press ran the following story soon after the doors of the new building opened:

Nazi book store has Brown Shirts, "white power," few books

By MARY SWINDELL

The black between W 100th St. and Lorain Ave. has a strong, right-wing flavor about it. One no doubt to a Nazi book store, a former Nazi book store, and George Wallace's campaign headquarters.

The "new book store" is at 10012 Lorain Ave. across the street from the former one which was at 10001 Lorain. The former book store is vandalized and destroyed, but gives a clue to its former identity by large neon over the door that says "Nazi Book Store."

When I visited the new book store I found the door somewhat difficult to open, but I gave it a good push, it opened and a couple of rolled-up newspapers dropped to the floor.

A MAN in a brown shirt who had been lying behind an old desk, stepped out and greeted me effusively.

"Come right in, come on in," he bellowed. "Sorry about the door. It doesn't shut unless we jam papers into it."

The new book store was small, dark and somewhat dingy. It wasn't much of a book store, either, with only a few desultory pamphlets and a rack full of pamphlets and the newspaper, "White Power."

I apologized for the scanty selection of books. "We just been open a few days. In a couple weeks we'll have a big variety of books and papers here. We're just getting started. We got a few out of our other store."

I ALLUDED to the one across the street. "Yeah, after the landlord found out who we were he chased us out," said Brown Shirt.

Brown Shirt's uniform was completed by a black tie with a swastika clasp and black pants. If it hadn't been for the tie clip, he would have looked like a truck driver.

I explained that I hadn't much money with me to spend on books.

Nevertheless, Brown Shirt didn't want me to go away empty-handed, so he pressed upon me several copies of "White Power." The thing that impressed me most about "White Power" is that it seems to have taken up, in terms of 200 pages, where the National Enquirer has left off.

BUT I could spare a quarter, so I purchased a pamphlet called "To Aryan Youth," which is a translation of an address delivered in 1923 by Dr. Walter Gross, a German professor.

Brown Shirt was telling me his theories on race matter when two men walked in, greeted my host and sat down around Brown Shirt's desk. They reminded me of three characters gathered around the turtle barrel in a country store.

Brown Shirt continued to lecture me. "It was the white man who made this country great, and the black man is trying to tear it down."

"THE ARYANS are builders. The white race must stick together so that the Jewish-Communist conspiracy doesn't tear everything apart. Only Aryans can bring to the National Socialist White People's Party," he said.

"What exactly is an Aryan?" I asked.

"An Aryan is any white, non-Jewish person," said Brown Shirt.

"Really? I thought you had to be German," I said, recalling that the Third Reich displaced other Europeans.

"Not No!" I had obviously struck a nerve. "I'm Polish, he's Ukrainian, and he's Methodist!"

NEW PLACE — The Nazis, however, have relocated across the street at 10012 Lorain.

Further, despite the efforts of one defector to stop the White Power Message in Cleveland, it is back on the air stronger than ever. Since its reinstallation, a wave of controversy caused some attempted legal action on the part of the Ohio Bell Company.

The number of the Cleveland-area WPM is (216) 631-6448.

Commander Addresses Baltimore Gathering

On the evening of 6 March, Commander Koehl made a stirring call to action at an organizational meeting of National Socialists in Baltimore. He showed how activism is the key to success in winning the hearts and minds of our people during the revolutionary struggle in the months and years to come. He explained that only the Aryan Cross inspires in our people a spirit "stronger than 1,000 atom bombs—a spirit that is the essence of Aryan man himself!" He then strongly urged all present to help in the effort to establish a local unit. A spontaneous standing ovation followed his presentation.

Other National Headquarters workers included Richard Saunders and William Kirstein. Mr. Kirstein spoke on Party activity in the country, including the recent cross-country trip he and the Commander took. He showed how only through standing squarely on National Socialist principles can we build a revolutionary White man's movement imbued with the spirit of victory so necessary to establish White power in America and throughout the world.

Mr. Saunders spoke of the relationship between National Socialism and ecology, showing how our philosophy advocated respect for, and a harmonious relationship with the environment.

While speaking of recent successes in door-to-door newspaper sales, the chairman of the meeting invited new people to join with him and other activists in working in White neighborhoods. He said that this form of activity, while most difficult in terms of effort and time spent, was most important in laying the groundwork for establishing a White Power Message and, eventually, a bookstore.

One individual at the meeting told of his former affiliation with several right-wing groups. He delivered a dramatic testimony to his faith and dedication to the Party when he addressed himself to those he recognized from other organizations:

"Those of you who know me know of the nearly 15 years I've spent fighting in various conservative organizations, and yet I say to you that all of those years were wasted! Nobody respects you when you say you're something you're not. My Official Supporter card in the NSWPP means more to me than membership in all the other groups and all the offices I've held in them and all the years I spent with those bunches of cowardly phonies!"

The mailing address of the Baltimore unit is: Box 7885, zip 21221.

A Boat Ticket for Dick Gregory

NS Comrade John Sedlak recently shook up a treason meeting held at a local high school. Jane Fonda, 'sex symbol' turned race-traitor and Dick Gregory, erstwhile coon comedian and revolutionary were speaking at a fund-raising drive for harassment of our soldiers in Vietnam. Sedlak's report follows.

"Standing at the entrance of the parking lot, I passed out over 300 pieces of literature as the cars pulled in. Later, I went inside and stood in the wings while the treasonous affair went on in the auditorium. I then put on my Swastika armband. Jane Fonda was at the other end of the hall and I was about to ask her why she did not seem concerned about Israeli war crimes. Jews, niggers and hippies gave me nasty looks as I stood there. Then Dick Gregory stopped out into the hall, and I handed him a boat ticket to Africa! He looked at it, laughed and said he'd go back. 'I KNOW you will,' I replied!"

L.A. Leader Shakes Nixon's Old Alma Mater

Lt. Joe Tommasi, Los Angeles Leader, recently shook the little town of Yorba Linda when he appeared on one of their high school campuses with Trooper Bill Gould ... in full uniform! NSYM member Tom Bedore sent the following report:

"About two weeks ago I managed to get Lt. Tommasi on our campus to speak to an American History class, and to make a public speech which all students could attend. When the Lieutenant and Trooper Gould arrived in the morning, the teacher got more than he had bargained for--they were in full-dress uniform! As he walked into the class, people from all over started pushing to get in. About 75 were packed into the room with at least 100 outside. During the talk, an obnoxious Jew asked Lt. Tommasi if he thought Jews were a race and to pick out all the Jews in the room. The Lieutenant pointed his finger at him and exposed him to the students as one of 'God's Chosen'; and then picked out several other repulsive creatures. During further questions and answers, the teacher stood up and screamed that it was all over, but Trooper Gould rushed up and placed several hundred copies of White Power and The Racialist on a desk, and within minutes they were gone. The teacher hustled the Lieutenant and Trooper Gould out the back door of the building and out to their car. All the rest of the day the school was talking about nothing else. (2)

On Campus . . .

Pittsburgh

NSYM Organizer Suspended!

Robert Evans, a student at East Allegheny High in Pittsburgh, was last month LOCKED in a classroom by the administration to prevent his spreading of the National Socialist doctrine, and then finally suspended for holding an ad hoc White Power meeting in the school library. A portion of his recent report on "Operation Spearhead" (to be reprinted and issued to all NSYM members) reads as follows:

"Since the inauguration of Operation Spearhead less than two weeks ago, tremendous progress toward its final goal, the establishment of a unit of the Movement on at least 10 high school campuses by June, has been made. This is especially true of East Allegheny, and Hampton high schools. Slow, but even progress is being made at Sierra, and we expect excellent results from our drive at Perry, McKeesport, Peabody and Oliver high schools.

"Needless to say, these developments represent an unqualified VICTORY for National Socialism in this area. Operation Spearhead has gotten off to a fabulous start and is steaming ahead at top speed. This promises to be the first in a long series of successes which we hope to continue to produce-- with unshakable faith in the victory of our mighty Idea, unswerving dedication to Adolf Hitler's teachings, and unbending loyalty to Commander Koch!!"

Meanwhile, a number of Party meetings and youth rallies have been organized in the Pittsburgh area next month. The ACLU is working to get Mr. Evans' suspension revoked!

Utica, N. Y.

Utica Free Academy was recently rocked with race war, a result of continued forced integration of classes and social activities. In response to the Black terrorism, Joseph Brown and other young activists flooded the campus with "Uptight About School" and "Had Enough Whitey?" leaflets. Naturally the Blacks went on the rampage at this first sign of National Socialist activity, but this has only served to strengthen the spirits of organized White resistance. Mr. Brown reports a very good response from the students and the White community as well.

St. Paul, Minnesota

Gregory Mapes, an NS activist from St. Paul reports on the results of a speech he gave before a high school:

"On 4 February I spoke to a group of fellow White students and some Blacks at the request of my English instructor. Having recently received the 'Smash the No-Win System' leaflet, I decided it would make an excellent topic for this occasion. Upon completing the speech, I opened the floor for discussion, but no one could find a point to be argued! Even the Blacks, who are the most critical opposition I face, could only agree with the point I brought out."

Detroit

The following report from NSYM member Steven Kovacs includes a project other Party comrades in high school or college might take up:

"During February, I continued my campaign in school. I've continued to place stickers on my campus and pass out leaflets to potential supporters and friends in general. I also made a chart illustrating the Jewish power structure in my school. This chart illustrates that every department head in the various teaching categories is a Jew! Such names as Cornbein, Rosenberg, Ruben, Golden and Adler head the list. I feel that every supporter or NSYM member in high school or college should make a similar chart for their school to be used to illustrate the Jews' power in education. I'm sure that Jews will top their lists."

Vancouverites Appear on Radio

Three Vancouver National Socialists recently appeared on the "Open Line" program on radio station CKWX. George Magas, James Friesen and Stewart Barden spoke and answered questions about the National Socialist program for an hour and a half.

New Titles Carried by NS Publications

Enclosed with this Bulletin is a carefully selected list of new titles now being carried by NS Publications. These books are being offered to provide National Socialists with new sources of important information about racial history, politics and related matters. All proceeds from your purchases go toward furthering the National Socialist cause.

It should be emphasized that this is a list of new books only. For our regular list of publications, leaflets, stickers, etc., consult the current issue of White Power, page seven.

Supplementary lists will be appearing in the future.

WHERE THE ACTION IS!

April 10: There will be an outdoor rally in Lafayette Park across from the White House starting at 2 p.m. This will be the Party's first public meeting of the season in Washington.

April 18: There will be a celebration in Northern Virginia commemorating the 32nd birthday of the Leader. Be at Headquarters by 11 a.m.

April 24: The Reds Are Coming to Washington! Party Troopers will assemble in Lafayette Park at 10 a.m. All Party comrades and associates from Eastern areas of the country are strongly urged to attend this event, which may well be the most exciting of the year.

April 24: Red Demonstration in Los Angeles! Party associates on the West Coast are urged to contact Los Angeles headquarters in preparation for the action there. Write Box 2206, El Monte, California 91732, or call (213) 442-1046.

May 8: A White Power rally has been planned for Sylvan Theater on the Washington Monument grounds at 12 noon. Carl McIntire and his marchers will be nearby.

May 9: The Party will be holding a demonstration and rally protesting Rudolf Hess' 30th year behind bars. Participants should gather at Headquarters at 10 a.m. for the demonstration. The rally will begin at 2 p.m. with speeches demanding his release.

Labor Day weekend (Sept. 4, 5 and 6): The third annual North American Congress of the World Union of National Socialists will take place in Arlington.

We invite as many NS Comrades as possible--especially those on the East Coast--to make plans now to be on hand for these important and exciting events.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY

2507 NORTH FRANKLIN ROAD · ARLINGTON, VIRGINIA 22201 · PHONE (703) 524-2175

Dear Racial Comrade:

Sometime ago you signed up as an Official Supporter of the National Socialist White People's Party. You did this, we assume, because you were in accord with the beliefs and goals of this Movement. We were glad to have you join the Movement and were grateful for your contributions.

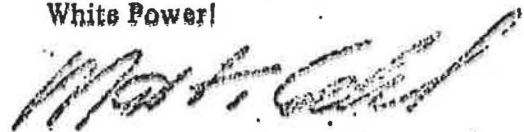

But somewhere along the way you dropped out. You stopped writing to us and we didn't hear any more about your activities. After a while we had no choice but to drop you from our rolls and discontinue mailings to you. We regretted this action but felt there was no justification in paying for mail to be sent to you if you were no longer interested in the Movement.

Perhaps we were wrong in assuming you no longer wanted to be a part of this Cause. If that is the case, we would like to reinstate you as an Official Supporter right away. We will then set you up again to receive the NS Bulletin twice each month, along with sample copies of new literature being published by the Party. We would like to keep you abreast of the progress the Party is making, as well as suggest various activities which can be performed in your community to help advance the cause of National Socialism.

We would like to invite you to fill out the form below and return it with your donation so we can renew your Official Supporter status and arrange for you to receive the NS Bulletin on a regular basis. Your contributions—even modest ones—permit us to take the National Socialist message to an ever-expanding number of new people. There is really no more worthwhile Cause to which you can contribute.

We look forward to hearing from you again in the very near future.

White Power!

Matt Koehl
Commander

National Socialist White People's Party

Commander Koshi:

Yes, I would like to be reinstated as an Official Supporter of the National Socialist White People's Party.

Enclosed is my contribution for this month of $____ ($2 minimum).

I pledge to contribute at least $____ regularly each month to the Party. I shall try to give more whenever possible, and I understand that the amount I have pledged may be officially reduced at any time upon my request.

Please print.

On 5/21/71 SA [REDACTED] and the writer interviewed Joseph Charles Tommasi, leader of the Western Division, NSWPP, 4375 North Peck Road, El Monte, California in connection with an extortion case, LA file 9-4605. b7C

Upon their arrival agents were admitted by an individual who identified himself as [REDACTED] (Phonetic). He wore a sidearm. He called to Tommasi who then came to agents. Also present was [REDACTED] whom the writer had interviewed in the past. b7C

The front portion of the headquarters building had a long narrow room in which various literature was on display.

Tommasi was relaxed and discussed the persons involved in the extortion case freely. He also wore a sidearm. He was cordial to agents and seemingly very cooperative. No discussion of the NSWPP was entered into.

During the discussion, Tommasi indicated that one could become an Official Supporter of the NSWPP even though he were a Jew.

[REDACTED] (Phonetic) above mentioned may be identical with one [REDACTED] who was identified by [REDACTED] (Conceal) as attending a meeting of the NSWPP held on 3/20/71 at 4375 N. Peck Road, El Monte, California. [REDACTED] b2

FBI - New Orleans

On Friday, 6/4/71, a total of 19 persons attended a widely publicized public appearance of DAVID DUKE, leader of the WYA in New Orleans. Advertising of the speech was done by the distribution of some 1500 leaflets in the New Orleans area by WYA activists. The persons attending DUKE's speech included the following:

[redacted] with the White Race League
Colonel (LNU), white male, 5'2", 120 lbs.,
glasses, beard, mid fifties, friend of [redacted] b7C

DAVID DUKE

Most of the members showed up in uniforms.

The total number of persons who attended the speech not previously WYA members, was very small.

[redacted] introduced DAVID DUKE by welcoming persons attending the speech and stating briefly that the WYA was determining the future of the white race. DUKE spoke for 45 minutes in general and rambling terms about the success of the WYA in Baton Rouge, La. in the past. He said that the Robert E. Lee High School in Baton Rouge still waves the rebel flag and that the school board was presented with the WYA viewpoint as well as that of the NAACP thanks to the efforts of WYA activists.

The speech appeared to be ineffective in stirring any great response from either the WYA members or the members of the audience.

A person who identified himself as [redacted] signed up as a prospective member. He indicated that he had recently graduated from [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] His mother, name unknown, paid

[redacted] $5 registration fee.

Some $28 was collected from admissions and literature sold during the speech.

After the speech, DUKE indicated he was working for Pan American airlines during the summer of 1971, and his employment allowed him to travel around the world.

He leaves New Orleans on June 14 and will travel to Dallas, San Francisco, Honolulu, Tokyo, Hong Kong, Bangkok, arriving at Vientiane, Laos where he will work in Pan American's Office there in an unknown capacity. He indicated that after that employment for ten weeks, he will attempt to travel to Australia and Munich, Germany and make contact with right wing leaders in those areas.

[] and DUKE seem to disagree on whether the New Orleans WYA group should split from the NSWPP. Though [] and DUKE do not violently disagree, DUKE thinks the WYA in New Orleans should stay in the NSWPP and he looks up to the party headquarters in Virginia as the main authority. [] on the other hand, wants to start a separate group with the label Nationalist Party in New Orleans, even if the group has to split off from the NSWPP.

b7C

[] after the meeting, furnished [] with the specific address of JOSEPH TOMASI for [] use when he travels to Phoenix and possibly California in the summer of 1971.

b7C

TOMASI, according to [REDACTED] is the leader of the right wing group sympathetic with the NSWPP in El Monte, California. TOMASI's address is 4375 North Peck Road in El Monte, and uses P. O. Box 2206 in that city. His telephone is 213-442-1046.

Reference is made to Serial 157-9-3772 which reflects that SA [REDACTED] and the writer interviewed Joseph Charles Tommasi of the NSWPP, El Monte, California on 5/21/71 concerning an Extortion matter (LA file 9-4605). At that time he furnished various documents including letters from [REDACTED] and two photos each of which contained among others, [REDACTED] He identified [REDACTED] by an X mark on each photo.

On 6/14/71 the writer returned the material to Tommasi in "El Monte. Again he identified the fat person marked with an "X" as [REDACTED] Tommasi signed a receipt acknowledging receipt of the material from the FBI. That receipt is being filed in the 1A envelope of the extortion case.

Attached to the original of this memorandum (for 157-9) is a set of xerox copies of the documents and a copy containing the two pictures indicating placement of the "X" on each photo. The b7C documents contain information regarding [REDACTED] feelings towards the NSWPP and that she is an Official Supporter.

Photographic copies of the two photos have been made and are retained in 157-9-1A envelope.

RE: NATIONAL SOCIALIST
WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY (NSWPP)

On August 8, 1971, a first source furnished all of the following information pertaining to the third annual North American Congress of the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP) held September 4 and 5, 1971. The congress was held at the Holiday Inn located on Telegraph Road in Alexandria, Virginia. Source advised that approximately 180 persons were believed to have registered for the congress, these persons representing NSWPP organizations throughout the United States and Canada.

The National Socialist White People's Party, also known as The American Nazi Party, American Nazis, and The George Lincoln Rockwell Party, was organized on February 26, 1956, at Arlington, Virginia, based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement as espoused by the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. The organization supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and communists through various propaganda media seeking a legitimate dominant political party in the United States and foreign countries.

The program consisted of the following:

NATIONAL SOCIALIST BATTLE SONG

We march and fight to death or on to victory;
Our might is right -- no traitor shall prevail;
Our hearts are steeled against the fiery gates of hell;
No shot or shell can still our mighty song!
Our hearts are steeled against the fiery gates of hell;
No shot or shell can still our mighty song!

Our sword is truth, our shield is faith and honor;
In age or youth our hearts and minds we pledge;
Though we may die to save our people and our land;
This cause will stand, our millions marching on!
Though we may die to save our people and our land;
This cause will stand, our millions marching on!

We close our ranks in loyalty and courage;
To God our thanks for comrades tried and true;
Let traitors quail and fear the wrath of honest men,
Who rise again to smash the devil's throng!
Let traitors quail and fear the wrath of honest men,
Who rise again to smash the devil's throng!

We march and fight to death or on to victory;
Our might is right--no traitor shall prevail;
Our hearts are steeled against the fiery gates of hell;
No shot or shell can still our mighty song!
Our hearts are steeled against the fiery gates of hell;
No shot or shell can still our mighty song!

On September 4, 1971, the morning session began at approximately ten o'clock with opening remarks by Captain WILLIAM KIRSTEIN. KIRSTEIN began by saying, "National Socialist Comrades, in the spirit of our Fuehrer ADOLPH HITLER, I welcome you to this, the third North American Congress of the National Socialist White People's Party. By the end of this gathering, we will have had the largest National Socialist gathering ever held anywhere since the fratricidal holocaust that was World War II." KIRSTEIN continued that the National Socialist Movement lives today in solid, steel hard formation which nothing on heaven or earth could destroy. KIRSTEIN cautioned that during the congress, there were to be no interruptions and that anyone with anything on their minds should talk between sessions with either KIRSTEIN or Captain CHRISTOPHER VIDNJEVICH, the Security Officer. KIRSTEIN emphasized that the congress was being held strictly for internal purposes only.

KIRSTEIN introduced MATTHIAS KOEHL, JR., National Socialist National Commander, by saying that through KOEHL the party had experienced its greatest growth and development. To KOEHL, said KIRSTEIN, the party was pledging its undying loyalty.

Commander KOEHL began by welcoming all of the delegates to the third annual congress; particularly those from distant parts of the United States and Canadian guests who had "crossed the artificial geographical boundary which divides white men." He pointed out the purpose of the congress was to reaffirm the principals on which the National Socialist Movement was based. He stated that National Socialists were not to regard themselves as "right wingers" but as National Socialists because no other movement has the same holy cause. What is happening in the United States, according to KOEHL, was anticipated by the National Socialists. He pointed to such issues as bussing for integration, financial policy of government, and the collapse of foreign policy. KOEHL then pledged his loyalty to ADOLPH HITLER and his greatest champion, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL.

Next, Captain WILLIAM KIRSTEIN spoke briefly saying the National Socialist Movement was not just another Right Wing Movement standing for some shallow or temporary solution to economic or states rights issues. It is an all encompassing world view, its nationalism is its racialism. KOEHL then explained this in his speech entitled, "The National Socialist World View."
